K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.

Founder, Owner, Chairman of the Board and CEO

Entering his 42nd year as Founder, Owner, Chairman of the Board and CEO of the Titans/Oilers franchise, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. is an enduring figure in the NFL. As one of the original team owners in the American Football League, he has guided his franchise to new heights since relocating to Nashville in 1997, posting the best back-to-back seasons in club history over the last two seasons, 26-6, including a 15-1 mark at home.

A native of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Adams' interest in sports was first displayed while at Culver Military Academy where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver in 1940, Adams attended Menlo College (California), lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams met his future wife Nancy Neville and began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi Fraternity.

One of the original founders of the American Football League, Adams' Oilers were AFL Champions in 1960-61.

In 1942, while still in school at KU, Adams joined the U.S. Naval Reserve. In July 1943, he was called to active duty in the Navy's V-12 college program. In 1944, he attended Midshipman Officer School at Notre Dame where he earned his ensign commission. He was sent overseas and was assigned to a PAC-Fleet carrier unit, where he served as an aviation engineering officer. He returned to the U.S. in December 1945. Lt. jg Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington D.C. prior to his discharge in 1946.

Adams parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog which grounded his plane, into a highly-successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the prominent businessmen in the country.

In 1946, Adams started ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc. (AE), an energy company engaged in the business of marketing crude oil, natural gas and petroleum products; tank truck transportation of liquid chemicals; and oil and gas exploration and production. Adams' other business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing, and a travel agency. He has been a longtime collector of Western art and Native-American artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams, a year-round sports fan, was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports was further evidenced by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball and boxing.

Football history was made in Adams' office in Houston on August 3, 1959, where he and Lamar Hunt held a press conference to announce formation of the new American Football League which would begin playing in 1960. Hunt would have a team in Dallas, Adams would have a team in Houston, and other teams would be forthcoming.

In his fifth decade as founder, owner, chairman and CEO of the Tennessee Titans (formerly Houston Oilers and Tennessee Oilers), the hardworking and aggressive Adams has made professional football history numerous times. In 1968, Adams' Oilers became the first NFL team to play their home games indoors by moving into Houston's Astrodome. A team rich in tradition and pride, the Oilers were the dominant team in the American Football League during the 10-year era (1960-69), playing in the championship game four times (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967) – and winning twice consecutively (1960, 1961); earning four AFL Eastern Division Championships (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967); and making the playoffs five years out of 10 (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967,1969). In 1970, the AFL merged into the expanded NFL, and Adams' teams made the playoffs 12 times (1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1999, 2000). In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93) was the longest streak in the NFL during that time span. Last season, the franchise captured their third AFC Central Division Championship after winning the division in both 1991 and 1993.

The Houston Oilers played their final season in 1996 at the Houston Astrodome. In 1997, Adams led the National Football League into the Mid-South region, the last untapped area without a major professional sport. That feat allowed his team to be the first NFL franchise to call "the Volunteer State" home. During construction of Adelphia Coliseum, the Tennessee Oilers played the 1997 season at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, and the 1998 season at Vanderbilt Stadium in Nashville.

On July 29, 1998, Adams announced that the Oilers' name would be changed for the 1999 season. The Oilers' name was retired by the NFL - a first in league history - allowing the Tennessee franchise to retain the team's winning tradition, and launching a new era in the Mid-South.

The Tennessee Titans made their debut in 1999. In Greek mythology, Titans were men of strength and power. The Titan Prometheus brought fire to man; and the Titans of today brought fire to the football fans in the Mid-South during a very memorable inaugural season, unveiling a new name, stadium, training facility, logo, uniform and colors. Adams personally selected T-Rac as the team's new mascot.

In two seasons as the Titans, the franchise has captured the American Football Conference Championship (1999), the AFC Central Division Championship (2000), the best record in the NFL with a 26-6 mark, the best home record at 15-1 and the loyalty of millions of fans across the nation and throughout the world. The popularity of the Titans has translated into a number two ranking among NFL teams in merchandise sales during the year 2000. The Titans also have two players in the top 10 among NFL player jerseys sold last year, Eddie George (ranked 1st) and Steve McNair (ranked 9th).

During Adams' illustrious career, fifty-three of his players have been Pro Bowl selections, including an AFL and NFL Most Valuable Player. Also, five of Adams' players, including Mike Munchak this year, have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In recognition of the 40th season of the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans organization, Adams created an official team hall of fame at Adelphia Coliseum that will feature players and staff from the past, while creating a special place for Titans stars of the future to be recognized.

Adams is currently a working member on several prominent NFL committees, including the NFL's Finance and Hall of Fame Committees, and is a Trustee for the NFL Trust. Very active in national, state and local programs, Adams is on the Board of Directors of the Cherokee Indian National Historical Society; the Board of Governors of the Sigma Chi Fraternity Foundation; the Board of Trustees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America – Sam Houston Area Council; and a Lifetime Director of The Hundred Club in Houston. He is an Emeritus Trustee of the Culver Educational Foundation; and is a Lifetime Director of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. In Tennessee, he is on the Board of Directors of the Middle Tennessee Council of the Boy Scouts of America; a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, and on the Board of Trust of the 100 Club of Nashville.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. Most recently, the Tennessee General Assembly honored him and the Titans at the State Capitol. He was awarded the Community Spirit Award by the Nashville Sports Council at the 3rd Annual American General Dinner of Champions in February 2001; was honored by the Cherokee National Historical Society at a dinner at the Gilcrease Museum in Tulsa, Okla., in Sept. 2000; was honored at Tennessee State University in August 2000; was the recipient of the Lamar Hunt Outstanding Pro Football Executive Award for the year 2000 from the All-American Football Foundation; and in March 2000, he received the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Silver Hope Chest Award in Nashville. In 1997, he was honored by Sigma Chi Fraternity with a formal portrait and bust on permanent display in the foyer and museum of their Evanston, Illinois, headquarters. He was inducted into Culver Academy's Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in 1994. In 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi, which is the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In 1990, he was given Sigma Chi Foundation's Semi-Centennial Award.

Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included the 1988 prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" from the Greater Houston Convention and Visitor's Bureau; and the 1987 Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). He was named 1983 "King Capon" by Bill Williams' Annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.; 1981 "Man of the Year" by Culver Military Academy; 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer" by Financial World Magazine; 1980 "Distinguished Alumnus" by California Community and Junior College Association; 1969 "Westerner of the Year" by the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; 1963 "Significant Sig" by Sigma Chi Fraternity; 1961 "Mr. Sportsman" by the Interfaith Charity Group; and 1960 "Houston Salesman of the Year" by the Houston Sales Association.

Adams and his wife Nancy celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary in October 2000. They have two daughters: Susie Smith and Amy Strunk, and seven grandchildren. Their son Kenneth S. Adams III is deceased.

Making a Difference in the Community

Adams and his wife, Nancy, have given generously to the greater Nashville community.

In 1999, its first year of existence, the Tennessee Titans football team made an immediate impact on the field culminating in their appearance in Super Bowl XXXIV. Team owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. made an immediate impact during that miraculous 1999 season with his off-the-field efforts as well.

In recognition of his many charitable endeavors, the Nashville Sports Council presented the "2000 Community Spirit Award" to Adams at their annual Dinner of Champions on February 1, 2000. The award was given for Adams' "countless charitable contributions that helped so many in the Metro Nashville community during 1999."

Adams and his wife, Nancy, have given generously to many charitable organizations over the years, mainly in the Houston area. Following Tropical Storm Allison, which in June 2001 devastated the Houston area with more than 30 inches of rain, Adams contributed $100,000 to the "Spirit of Texas Fund" established by the Red Cross to aid flood victims. Houston Texans owner Bob McNair and NFL Charities also contributed $100,000 each for a combined gift of $300,000 to the fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams established the Tennessee Titans Foundation in 1999 with an initial gift of $500,000 from the family. The Foundation offers financial support and other resources to non-profit organizations throughout Tennessee.

Committed gifts for the balance of the 2001 season will raise the total amount donated by the Tennessee Titans Foundation to more than $510,000 in less than two-and-one-half years of operation. Additional gifts from the Titans and the Adams family to Tennessee-area charities increase the total amount given to approximately $2.3 million, and in-kind gifts and grants from NFL Charities push the amount to approximately three million dollars to charities since the team arrived in Tennessee in 1997.

The largest fundraiser for the Titans Foundation is the annual Titans Charity Golf Classic, which has raised $273,000 in three events. A total of $80,000 from the 2001 tournament proceeds was distributed as follows: a $10,000 gift to United Way, and 15 additional gifts, totaling $70,000 to area charities.

The Titans contributed $886,000 over a two-year period (1999-2000) to the NFL for the youth football fund. The NFL community affairs department uses this fund to improve youth football programs and facilities nationwide. Of this amount, $220,000 was allocated within the Titans' market.

Adams' gifts have not been limited to cash donations. He gave the "trip of a lifetime" to Super Bowl XXXIV to 40 Nashville teenagers and 10 chaperones that were chosen from six local charities. "Bud's Kids" were treated to 50-yard-line seats and a three-night stay at the Titans' team hotel and a trip home on the team's 747-charter airplane.

Making a Difference in the Community

Adams donated Super Bowl tickets to the Nashville Red Cross during a time when their available blood supply was at a critically low stage. Donors were eligible to win two tickets, and the "Super Bowl Blood Drive" resulted in 3,549 pints of blood, one of the most successful drives in the history of Nashville.

Adams donated a pair of Super Bowl tickets to be raffled off to help pay medical expenses for Kaia Jergenson, a member of the David Lipscomb University women's basketball team, who lost her legs due to bacterial meningitis.

The team's historic 1999 Super Bowl season saw Adams get heavily involved in area schools with three unique programs. He established a statewide art contest that spotlighted the importance of art in education and also added some Tennessee artistic flair to Adelphia Coliseum.

The art contest was open to high school students (grades 9-12) and resulted in 150 winning entries that hung in the suites at the stadium. One winner from each grade won $1,000 with runners-up in each grade winning $750 each. Adams rewarded area sixth, seventh and eighth grade students for their hard work by donating 3,500 pairs of tickets to the inaugural game in Adelphia Coliseum versus the Falcons.

He purchased more than 500 copies of "Tennessee: A History" and presented them to seventh grade history classes at public schools across the state. Wilma Dykeman is the author of the book and was a member of the Titans Advisory Board of Directors that aided Adams in selecting the new name and logo for the franchise.

Adams spearheaded the drive for construction and operation of the original Ronald McDonald House in Houston. The team also hosted a biannual fundraising gala from 1978–94 which raised more than $3.5 million to support, operate and provide the permanent endowment of that Ronald McDonald House.

Additional gifts that Adams generated for Tennessee charities include:

Additional gifts that Adams generated for Tennessee charities since the team moved to Tennessee in 1997 include:

- $760,000 in gifts to the various charities in the greater Memphis area (1997 and 1998)
- $220,000 in gifts to youth football programs within the Titans' market

- Approximately 50 additional organizations in Tennessee have received gifts ranging up to $10,000 since 1997.

Adams Resources & Energy, Inc.

2000 was a successful year, not only for Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s team, but for his Houston-based business as well. Adams Resources and Energy, which Adams runs as CEO, jumped to the 2000 rank of 267 (from the 1999 rank of 400) on the current Fortune Magazine's list of the 500 largest American corporations. Adams Resources, which went public in 1974, ranked 24th in the year 2000 on the Houston Chronicle 100 list published May 20, 2001, and achieved a 38.4% increase in profits over 1999.

Best Boss for the Buck

"Bud Adams is a big ol' bargain" read Forbes.com on April 26, 2001

Forbes, the influential business magazine, has developed a formula to determine which "Forbes 500" CEO delivers the best value to his shareholders in relation to his annual salary – the "best boss for the buck," as Forbes terms it. No. 2 on the list of Forbes' recently-published survey of "Best Value Bosses" is Adams Resources & Energy chief executive officer K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., who also owns the Tennessee Titans. Without explaining Forbes' intricate formula here, only Warren Buffett, CEO of Berkshire Hathaway, was ranked above Adams for the most productive boss for pay they received. Paying himself a total of just over $1 million during the past five years, Adams' energy company increased sales by 46 percent over that time to almost $7 billion. "I try to hire the right guys and I pay them a lot more than I get," Forbes quoted Adams. "But they add to the bottom line."

Jeff Diamond

President and Chief Operating Officer

Jeff Diamond enters his third season as the Titans' President and Chief Operating Officer and his 26th NFL season in 2001. In July 1999, Diamond became the first person other than Titans owner and founder K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. to hold the title of team president when Adams relinquished the title following the move to Tennessee.

Diamond's experience has benefited the Titans, both on and off the football field.

Diamond is responsible for both football and non-football operations in Nashville for the Titans. He works closely with General Manager Floyd Reese and General Counsel Steve Underwood on salary cap planning and player contracts and with Reese and Head Coach Jeff Fisher on team roster decisions and planning. He also works with Executive V.P.-Administration Don MacLachlan in overseeing the Titans' administration, sales and marketing areas. In addition, he oversees the management of Baptist Sports Park and Adelphia Coliseum and attends NFL meetings as a club representative.

Diamond joined the Titans after serving as the Minnesota Vikings' Senior Vice President of Football Operations. He spent 23 years with the Vikings organization after joining them in 1976 as assistant PR director. Over his 25 years in the NFL (Titans and Vikings), teams that Diamond has been associated with have qualified for the playoffs 16 times. He was named Senior Vice President of Football Operations in August 1998, and he negotiated all player contracts and oversaw player personnel, the coaching staff, all other team operations, and served as the Vikings' liaison with the NFL office and other clubs on scheduling matters. He was very involved in the planning and building of the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. He was a member of the Executive Committee of the Minnesota Super Bowl Task Force which planned Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome.

In March 1999, Diamond was named the NFL's "Executive of the Year" by The Sporting News after the Vikings ended the 1998 season with a league-best 15-1 mark during the regular season en route to an appearance in the NFC Championship Game. Diamond, who was responsible for the salary cap, trades and player contract negotiations, among his other duties, spearheaded the Vikings' re-signings in 1998 of key free agents RB Robert Smith, WR Jake Reed, T Todd Steussie and DT John Randle with multi-year contracts, as well as an extension with WR Cris Carter.

Diamond is actively involved in the Nashville and Middle Tennessee community. He is on the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee for United Way of Metropolitan Nashville, the Board of Governors for the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Directors for the YMCA of Middle Tennessee and the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame. He also is a member of The Exchange Club of Nashville and is the Titans representative on the "One for the Community" program that provides financial support for area schools and education.

A native Minnesotan, Diamond attended St. Louis Park High School and then graduated from the University of Minnesota with honors and played soccer for the Golden Gophers. Diamond and his wife, Diane, have two children, Brett (19) and Brooke (16).

Jeff Fisher

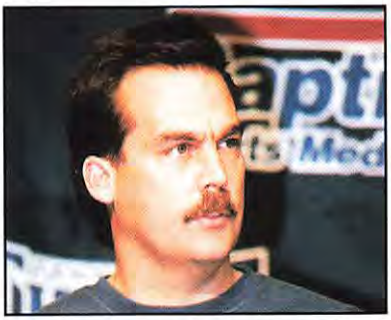

EVP and Head Coach

Jeff Fisher is entering his seventh season as head coach of the Tennessee Titans and his second as Executive Vice President. Last season, Fisher became only the fifth coach in NFL history to lead his team to consecutive 13-win seasons, joining Mike Ditka (Chicago Bears, 1985-86), George Seifert (San Francisco, 1989-90), Marv Levy (Buffalo Bills, 1990-91) and Mike Holmgren (Green Bay Packers, 1996-97).

Last season, Fisher also became the franchise's winningest coach with 61 victories, surpassing Bum Phillips who accounted for 59 wins in his six seasons with the then-Houston Oilers. Lastly, Fisher became the fourth youngest NFL coach (since 1960) to reach the 50 regular season win plateau at the age of 42. Only Don Shula (37), John Madden (38) and Bill Cowher (39) have reached the 50-win mark at a younger age.

Building on the success the Titans had during the 1999 season would be tough to accomplish, but Fisher followed the team's first AFC championship in 1999 with an AFC Central crown and the League's best record in 2000. It was the first time in franchise history that the Titans/Oilers have owned the NFL's best record (13-3) and only the third time the club has won the AFC Central.

Fisher has led the Titans to back-to-back 13-3 seasons, maintaining his status as one of the top coaches in the NFL.

Fisher's teams always have been known for their toughness, physical play and aggressive defense. The defense reached a new level of success in 2000, earning the number one ranking in the NFL for yards allowed and surrendering the third lowest point total in the league since 1977. Fisher's teams are also mentally strong, flourishing on the road where many teams will wilt. Since 1995, the Titans/Oilers have amassed the best road record in the NFL with a 28-20 mark during that time. Additionally, in each of the last two seasons, the Titans have defeated all of the Super Bowl representatives during the regular season, beating the St. Louis Rams in 1999 and both the Baltimore Ravens and N.Y. Giants in 2000.

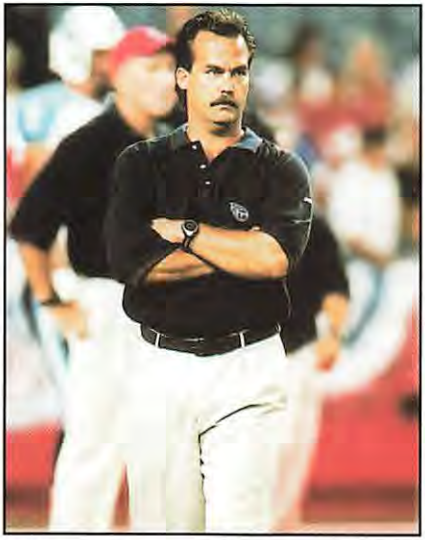

Fisher, the Titans and Middle Tennesseans will fondly remember the accomplishments of the 1999 season, which brought the team its first AFC Championship and appearance in Super Bowl XXXIV. Fisher and the Titans defeated AFC Central Division champion Jacksonville three times in 1999, handing the Jaguars their only losses. As a Wild Card team, the Titans had the most difficult route to the Super Bowl. Fisher earned his first postseason victory by defeating Buffalo 22-16, and overcame a 16-0 deficit against the Rams in one of the biggest displays of heart in any second half of Super Bowl history. The Titans became only the sixth Wild Card team to earn a trip to the Super Bowl since the NFL implemented the Wild Card playoff system in 1978. Fisher guided the Titans to a streak of 13 consecutive wins against AFC Central Division opponents dating back to 1998. It marked the longest streak in the history of the division and the third longest in the NFL since the 1970 merger. In December 1999, Fisher was appointed to the NFL Competition Committee by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. The committee oversees all aspects of the game on the field and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs.

Fisher originally joined the Oilers' coaching staff on February 9, 1994, after spending two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. Fisher was a perfect fit for the Oilers, who were looking for a young, aggressive coach with experience in the "46" defense. Fisher had worked with the "46" for many years with former Oilers Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan. Fisher took over a defense that achieved dominant status in 1993, but had lost several key components to free agency. He was elevated to head coach on November 14, 1994, replacing Jack Pardee, for the final six games of the season.

A former defensive back in college at the University of Southern California, Fisher played for John Robinson in a star-studded defensive backfield that included future NFL stars Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith and Joey Browner. Current Titans offensive lineman Bruce Matthews also was one of Fisher's USC teammates. Fisher's career statistics included five interceptions and 108 tackles. The versatile Fisher also served as the Trojans' backup kicker and earned PAC-10 All-Academic honors in 1980.

Originally a seventh-round draft selection of the Chicago Bears in 1981, Fisher appeared in 49 games as a defensive back and return specialist in five seasons. He earned a Super Bowl ring after Chicago's 1985 Super Bowl season, despite spending the year on injured reserve with an ankle injury that prematurely ended his playing career. During that season, Fisher began his post-playing career by assisting Ryan as an "unofficial" coach while the Bears ultimately defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XX. He left Chicago in 1985 holding a number of team records including: number of punt return yards for a season with 509 yards in 1981, number of punt returns in a season with 58 in 1984, and number of punt returns in one game with eight on December 16, 1984, at Detroit. He also recorded the longest punt return by a Bear in 39 years with an 88-yard return for a TD on September 20, 1981, against Tampa Bay.

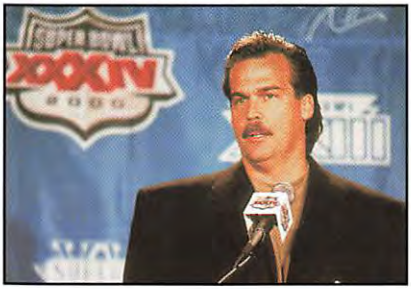

Fisher was appointed to the League's Competition Committee by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue in 1999.

Fisher began his coaching career as an assistant for Ryan and the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986, tutoring the defensive backs for three seasons before becoming the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1988. One year later, under Fisher's tutelage, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in interceptions (30) and quarterback sacks (62). In 1990, Philadelphia's defense paced the league in rushing defense and ranked second in QB sacks.

In 1991, Fisher headed west to be reunited with his college coach Robinson, serving as the Los Angeles Rams' defensive coordinator before joining the 49ers one year later.

A native of Southern Calif., Fisher was a high school All-America wide receiver for the Toreadors of Taft High School in Woodland Hills, Calif. Fisher is an avid golfer and fisherman. He also does considerable work in the community, and he generously donates time and money to a number of different charities, including a celebrity softball game that raises money for local charities. This past offseason, Fisher was named the winner of the Horrigan Award, given by the Pro Football Writers of America to the NFL representative that is the most cooperative with the media. Additionally, Fisher was named the 2000 Tennessean of the Year by Nashville's Tennessean; winner of the 2000 Apollo Award, given to the person who represents Nashville in the best light by the Nashville chapter of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA); and 1999 Sports Person of the year by the Nashville Sports Council.

Fisher (born 2/25/58) and his wife, Juli, a former Rose Bowl Princess, have three children: sons Brandon (14) and Trenton (9), and daughter Tara (12).

Don MacLachlan

EVP of Administration

Don MacLachlan is in his 11th season with the organization and his fourth as Executive Vice President of Administration.

He is responsible for all of the Titans' non-football operations, including the ticket office, community relations, media relations, marketing, and broadcasting.

Since arriving in Nashville, he has played an aggressive role in securing team sponsorships and corporate relationships, while interfacing with the Titans' broadcasting partners. MacLachlan has spearheaded excitement surrounding the team, built a fun and festive experience for fans at home games, and worked hard to link the organization with the greater Nashville community. He serves as a member of the Nashville Sports Council Board of Directors to gain further insight and feedback within the community.

Under MacLachlan's leadership, the Titans have sold out a franchise-record 22 consecutive home games entering the 2001 season.

MacLachlan's efforts helped launch a successful campaign in 1999 that increased the team's recognition throughout the region. Under his leadership, the club has sold out a franchise-record 22 consecutive home games. For the second consecutive season, the team also established a new record for home attendance with 547,532 fans going through the turnstiles. In addition, MacLachlan helped oversee the club's move to Nashville in 1997, and he was a key player in stadium naming rights negotiations with Adelphia Business Solutions.

The Detroit native started his tenure with the then-Houston Oilers in 1991, as Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting. He was elevated to Senior Vice President in 1994 and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Marketing, Broadcasting and Ticketing in 1997. MacLachlan administered off-the-field operations in both Memphis and Nashville during the club's first season in Tennessee in 1997.

Prior to joining the Oilers, MacLachlan spent 13 years in the athletic department at Northwestern University in Chicago. He first served as both Assistant Sports Information Director and Golf Coach in 1978. MacLachlan was named Athletic Ticket Manager in 1981, and he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 1985. MacLachlan was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1988 and remained in that role until joining the Oilers.

A 1978 graduate of the University of Michigan, MacLachlan and his wife Kathy are parents of two daughters: Shannon (12) and Kelly (8).

Floyd Reese

EVP, General Manager and Dir. of Football Operations

Floyd Reese is entering his 26th NFL season, 16th season with the franchise, and eighth as the Titans' Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations.

Last season, Reese became the winningest general manager in franchise history with 59 wins, surpassing head coach/general manager Bum Phillips who amassed 55 wins between 1975-80.

In his seven seasons, he has assembled a talented, Super Bowl-caliber team and has overseen a dramatic transformation from the club he inherited in 1994 to the one that posted 13-win seasons in each of the last two years.

Reese continues to make savvy moves via the NFL draft and free agency that keep the Titans among the league's elite.

Reese was a strong candidate for NFL Executive of the Year honors after his club's remarkable season in 1999. Of the 22 starters for the Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV, 13 were drafted by Reese. Overall, 17 Tennessee starters in the Super Bowl were originally drafted by the franchise.

Players in Tennessee's 2001 training camp comprised 30 draft selections from the last eight drafts, including six first-rounders featuring Pro Bowlers Eddie George, Jevon Kearse and Steve McNair. He also claimed a diamond in the rough when he plucked TE Frank Wycheck off the waiver wire in 1995. Wycheck has since led the Titans in receptions for each of the last five seasons and earned three consecutive Pro Bowl berths. This past offseason Reese constructed a trade that brought Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter to Tennessee from St. Louis.

Reese signed several key free agents that aided Tennessee in the last two seasons, including DT Jason Fisk, QB Neil O'Donnell, LB Randall Godfrey and T Fred Miller. Reese continues to fill holes through free agency by inking a deal with K Joe Nedney from Carolina this past offseason.

Reese is responsible for all aspects of the Titans' football operations, including player personnel, scouting and contract negotiations. He joined the Oilers in 1986, serving as linebackers coach four seasons before shifting to the front office in 1990 as the club's Assistant General Manager. Four seasons later, Reese was promoted to General Manager. During his tenure, all first-round draft picks have been signed and in training camp by reporting day.

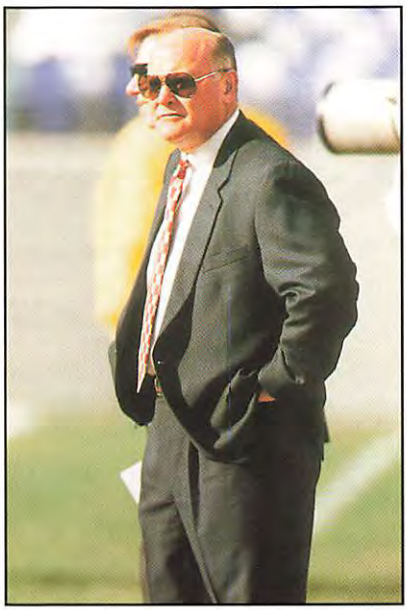

Reese aided in the selection of head coach Jeff Fisher and his staff, and coordinates all aspects of the team's National Football League draft and free agency.

A former All-America linebacker at UCLA (1966-69), Reese played one season with the Montreal Alouettes in the Canadian Football League before entering the coaching ranks. He began his coaching career at Liberty Union High in Brentwood, Calif., before returning to his alma mater in Westwood as an assistant coach in 1971. Reese spent three seasons at UCLA before moving to Georgia Tech in 1974.

Reese broke into pro football coaching in 1975, serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Detroit Lions. Reese then joined the San Franciso 49ers for one season (1978), before joining Bud Grant's staff as linebackers and special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1979. He served that role until 1984, when he was elevated to Defensive Coordinator. He tutored the linebackers for one season prior to joining the Oilers.

Reese and his wife Sally have two sons: Jeremy (23) and Sean (20).

Steve Underwood

EVP and General Counsel

Steve Underwood is in his 11th season with the franchise as General Counsel. The Baytown, Texas, native handles a myriad of legal functions, including involvement in the salary cap and player contracts, stadium contracts, promotional and corporate agreements, and litigation. He also serves as General Counsel for KSA Industries, Titans' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s private holding company.

Over the last six years, Underwood was heavily involved in issues related to the franchise's relocation to Tennessee, including involvement as one of the Titans' principal negotiators with local governments in Nashville, Memphis and Houston. Underwood also headed the club's lease negotiations with Vanderbilt University, the Liberty Bowl, and Tennessee State University.

Underwood was named a vice president in 1993 and this year was elevated to EVP.

A key member of the club's executive staff, Underwood handles a variety of legal and contract matters for the Titans and KSA Industries.

He is a frequent speaker and lecturer on sports law topics at State Bar functions, law schools and seminars. Underwood also is a member of the Houston Bar Association, licensed attorney in the U.S. Federal Court system, and member of the Entertainment and Sports Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. In addition, he is a member of the State Bar's Labor and Employment Section and serves on a joint committee of the NFLMC and NFLPA which studies workers compensation. He is involved in a variety of labor matters for the Club which relate to collective bargaining matters.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Underwood was an attorney for the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst since 1977. For his entire tenure there, Underwood served as the Oilers' primary counsel. He also served as a part-time business law/real estate instructor at Baytown Lee College from 1980-81, and at San Jacinto Junior College from 1981-85.

In 1990, Underwood was issued a special citation by a student society at Texas Southern University's College of Law for his "educational contribution to the college."

Underwood received his B.J. degree from the University of Texas and his law degree from the University of Houston. From 1974-76, while a law student, he was a legislative aide in the Texas State Legislature.

Underwood has five children: daughters Christy (27), Melissa (21), Providence (6) and Liberty (4), and son Dennis (9). Steve is married to the former Frances Caldwell.

Jackie Curley

Vice President and CFO

In the spring of 1997, Jackie Curley was named to the position of Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the Oilers-Titans.

Curley's responsibilities include financial reporting, budgeting, internal controls and cash management for the franchise. She is responsible for the Collective Bargaining Agreement audit, which is used by the NFL to determine the salary cap for the next season. In addition, Curley oversees the accounts payable and payroll functions of the organization and assists Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. with various special projects. She also works closely with the General Manager and General Counsel regarding salary cap issues and manages the player insurance program.

Curley was instrumental in the club's move to Tennessee, ensuring that all financial matters were handled smoothly. Not only has Curley performed numerous financial duties, she has taken an active role in various club-sponsored events, including the annual Titans Charity Golf Classic and other community-related events. Curley has also been a guest speaker at various conferences and seminars in the greater Houston and Nashville areas.

Prior to assuming her expanded role, Curley served as the Oilers' Controller for three years (1994-96). She was offered that position after completing her M.B.A. from Rice University while working full-time serving as Tax Manager for Adams' KSA Industries, Inc.

Before joining KSA Industries, Curley worked from 1985-89 as a Tax Supervisor in the Houston office of the accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand.

Recently engaged, Curley was born in Annapolis, Md. She grew up in Denver, Colo., graduating from the University of Denver with a BSBA, concentration in accounting, in 1983.

Curley handles many financial issues for the Titans and KSA Industries. She was promoted to Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in 1997.

Bill Dickerson

Vice President and GM of Adelphia Coliseum and Baptist Sports Park Facilities

Bill Dickerson is in his third season with the organization and first as Vice President and General Manager of Adelphia Coliseum and Baptist Sports Park Facilities. Dickerson was promoted this offseason after spending two seasons as General Manager of Facilities. He is responsible for the day-to-day operations of both the Baptist Sports Park practice facility and all events at Adelphia Coliseum, including game-day operations.

Along with Titans games, Adelphia Coliseum hosts Tennessee State University games and the Music City Bowl. As general manager of Adelphia Coliseum, Dickerson has handled a diverse lineup of special events including: Billy Graham's three-day Nashville crusade, Country Music Association's Fan Fair, concerts by George Strait and 'N Sync. In just two years, the facility has hosted over two million visitors for various events. In its inaugural season at Adelphia Coliseum last June, Fan Fair experienced the largest attendance in its history. Along with being one of the most fan-friendly stadiums in the country, the Coliseum's playing surface was ranked in the top five in the NFL in survey of players last season.

Dickerson joined the Titans after seven years with the Marriott Corporation in Kansas City. He worked as a Project Engineer in the College and University section of the company. His duties were to serve as a troubleshooting consultant for facility/campus concerns which could range from grounds, security, maintenance, etc.

Tennessee is Dickerson's second stop in the NFL, as he spent five seasons (1988-92) as the Director of Operations with the Kansas City Chiefs. While with the Chiefs, he managed Arrowhead Stadium and construction of the team's practice facility. The Chiefs hosted numerous special events at the stadium during Dickerson's tenure, including sold-out shows by the Rolling Stones and The Who.

A native of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, Dickerson earned his B.A. in business from Kansas State and M.S. in athletic administration from Wichita State University in 1980. Dickerson lives in Nashville.

Dickerson oversees a pair of state-of-the-art facilities: Adelphia Coliseum and Baptist Sports Park.

Bob Hyde

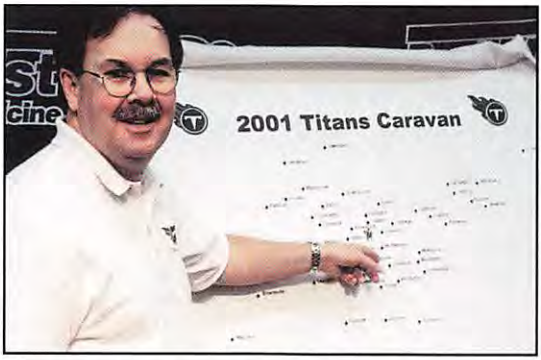

Vice President of Community Affairs

Bob Hyde is in his 13th season with the Titans and fourth as Vice President of Community Affairs. Hyde returned to the franchise in 1998 in his current position.

Under Hyde's direction, the Titans' community relations staff has made a major impact on the Mid-South with the success of the Titans' Caravans and over 300 player, coach, and staff appearances this past year.

He has successfully coordinated the club's major fundraiser, the annual Titans' Charity Golf Classic, which has raised approximately $250,000 during the past three years for local charities through the Titans Foundation.

Hyde's tireless efforts with the Titans Caravan have helped get Titans players out in front of the community, both in Nashville and throughout the southern region.

In 1998, Hyde served as the club's liaison between Mr. Adams and the advisory council. The information gathered by the advisory council and from focus groups that included hundreds of fans from across the state, aided Adams in giving the franchise a new name, logo and uniform.

A native of Tullahoma, Tenn., Hyde was a member of the franchise's media relations department from 1977-85. His career with the team began as a University of Houston intern in 1977, and he was named Assistant Public Relations Director in 1978.

Hyde was promoted to Media Relations Director in 1980 and served the Oilers in that capacity through the end of the 1985 season. He returned home to Tennessee in 1986, and for five years was an account executive with Nashville's Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence Public Relations agency.

In 1991, Hyde returned to Texas as Director of Public Relations for the San Antonio Riders of the NFL's World League of American Football. When the NFL suspended operations of that league in 1992, Hyde joined the PGA TOUR as a media official and was employed by the TOUR until he accepted his current position with the Titans.

A graduate of Tullahoma (Tenn) High School, Hyde attended Middle Tennessee State University before transferring to the University of Houston. Hyde is single and has two daughters, Ashley (16) and Hannah (10).

Thomas S. Smith

Exec. Assistant to the Chairman

A native of Houston, Thomas S. Smith is a graduate of the University of Texas with a B.B.A. in Finance. He worked in banking after graduating and joined the Adams family in 1974 when he married Susie Adams. Shortly thereafter, he went to work as Vice President of Associated Commercial Properties, a family-owned realty company. In 1976, he was named President of a newly-created printing company called Gulf Coast Graphics, another subsidiary of Bud Adams Enterprises. Gulf Coast Graphics printed all the Houston Oilers' team programs, media guides, and a weekly newspaper which was called Oilers Report. In 1979, Bud Adams Enterprises changed its name to KSA Industries, Inc., and Smith became Vice President/Treasurer of the company. He moved fulltime from Gulf Coast Graphics to KSA Industries in 1984, and was named Vice President/Assistant to the President.

Smith, pictured with wife Susie, played an instrumental role in the development of Baptist Sports Park.

He currently serves as the Executive Vice President of KSA Industries, the family holding company. In addition to that post, Smith is the Executive Assistant to K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. for the Titans' organization.

In 1986, Smith was elected to the Board of Directors of Adams Resources & Energy, Inc. He attends all NFL owners' meetings with Adams. In addition to his responsibilities with the Titans, he is involved with all of KSA Industries' subsidiary companies.

Smith was in charge of overseeing every aspect of the club's 1997 relocation process, and he worked closely with HOK, the Kansas City-based architecture and engineering firm, in the planning and development of Adelphia Coliseum in Nashville. He also guided the development of the temporary former practice site in Bellevue, in addition to the Baptist Sports Park at MetroCenter.

Among his other activities, Smith is a past president and currently on the Board of Directors of the Houston Ronald McDonald House. He recently helped oversee the planning and architectural design for a bigger and better Ronald McDonald House in Houston. The $10-million project was completed in September 1997. Smith is on the Board of Trustees of the Kinkaid School Endowment Fund, and he also served on the Board of Directors of the Red Cross and the Post Oak YMCA, and in the past worked closely with the Post Oak Little League. In addition, he is a past chairman of the Steering Committee for the Texas Children's Hospital Development Council.

Previously, Smith was chapter chairman and a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for the March of Dimes and served more than 10 years in various capacities for the March of Dimes. In 1986, Smith was the recipient of the Freedom Foundation Certificate of Merit, an annual award presented by a national committee to those who best exemplify citizenship, community awareness and are actively involved in their communities.

Smith and his wife, Susie, are parents of son, Stuart (19), and daughter, Nancy (16).

MIKE HEIMERDINGER • Offensive Coordinator

Mike Heimerdinger enters his 26th year of coaching and second as offensive coordinator for the Titans. In the first season with Heimerdinger at the offensive controls, the Titans saw success on many different levels. For the year, the Titans totaled 5,350 yards of offense which were the most since the "run-n-shoot" offense in 1993.

QB Steve McNair continued to mature as a quarterback under Heimerdinger, posting his highest quarterback rating of his career, 83.2, matching a career-high with 15 touchdowns and earning his first Pro Bowl selection. RB Eddie George surpassed the 1,500-yard rushing plateau for the first time in his five-year NFL career and WR Derrick Mason accumulated 895 receiving yards, which were the most by a franchise wide receiver since Webster Slaughter in 1993.

Heimerdinger joined the Titans after five seasons coaching the wide receivers for the two-time world champion Denver Broncos. Under his tutelage, the Denver tandem of Ed McCaffrey and Rod Smith became one of the top wide receiving duos in the NFL.

Heimerdinger came to Denver in 1995 from Duke University where he was the offensive coordinator and offensive backs coach in 1994. Before Duke, Heimerdinger spent five years (1989-93) as offensive coordinator at Rice University. During his tenure, the Owls produced the school's first back-to-back winning seasons since 1960-61. In 1988, Heimerdinger also served as offensive coordinator at Cal-State Fullerton, where they set the school's single-game record for most points scored in one game with 58.

Heimerdinger began his coaching career in 1975 as head coach at Johnsburgh High School in McHenry, Ill. Five years later, he served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Florida in 1980. He spent 1981 at Air Force and at North Texas State in 1982 before returning to Florida in 1983. He spent five years at Florida before moving onto Cal-State Fullerton.

A native of Dekalb, Ill. (10/13/52), Heimerdinger played wide receiver (1970-71) and centerfield at Eastern Illinois, where he earned his degree in history in 1975. He also participated in the NCAA Division II College World Series in 1974. He later earned his master's in Administration from Northern Illinois. Mike and his wife Kathie are parents of daughter, Alicia (19) and son, Brian (15).

JIM SCHWARTZ • Defensive Coordinator

Jim Schwartz enters his third season with the Titans and first as defensive coordinator. Last season he directed the linebackers and coordinated the team's third-down package.

The Titans defense led the NFL last season in third-down efficiency, with opponents converting only 30.8% (68/221) of their third-down chances. Additionally, Titan linebackers contributed 13.5 of the franchise-record 55 sacks last season. Schwartz also was instrumental in the integration of LB Randall Godfrey into the Titans defensive scheme, as he set career highs in tackles (169) and interceptions (2).

Schwartz originally joined the Titans' coaching staff in 1999 as defensive assistant/quality control.

Prior to joining the Titans, Schwartz spent three years as an assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. While in Baltimore, Schwartz also coached the Ravens' outside linebackers. Prior to the Browns moving to Baltimore, he spent three years in the Cleveland Browns' personnel department, assisting in all phases of college scouting.

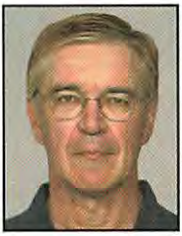

During that time, Schwartz also served as both a college and pro scout with the Browns and assisted the defensive coaching staff with film breakdowns and scouting reports. Schwartz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90. He then served as secondary coach at the University of Minnesota (1990-91) and North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

A native of Baltimore, Md. (6/2/66), Schwartz was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Hoyas of Georgetown University, where he earned his degree in Economics. He also received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown and earned numerous honors in 1988, including CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, Division III All-America, NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar and team captain.

An avid chess player, Jim and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Nashville, Tenn., with newborn twins Christian and Alison.

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM • Asst. Head Coach/LB's

Gunther Cunningham, a 33-year coaching veteran, enters his first season with the Titans as the club's Assistant Head Coach/Linebackers Coach. Cunningham owns 20 seasons of NFL coaching experience, including two years as head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1999-00. With a stellar defensive record, Cunningham is renowned as one of the finest defensive minds in the game today. Five of his six seasons as a defensive coordinator in the NFL, Cunningham's defenses have ranked in the top 11 in the league in total defense.

As the eighth head coach in the history of the Chiefs, Cunningham posted a 16-16 mark over the past two seasons. In 1999, he guided Kansas City to a 9-7 record as the Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio. The 55-year old originally joined the Chiefs in 1995 as defensive coordinator, a position he held for four seasons before being elevated to head coach. During his span as defensive coordinator (1995-98), the Chiefs defense tied for the league lead in fewest points allowed (1,050). Kansas City posted a 23-9 record in AFC West play en route to a pair of division titles over that four-year span. His 1995 defense led the NFL in scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and ranked second in total defense (284.3 ypg).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Cunningham worked for four seasons with the Raiders, where he held a variety of positions including defensive coordinator (1992-93), defensive line coach (1994) and linebackers coach (1991).

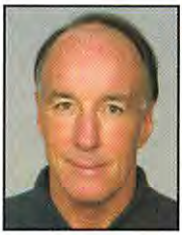

From 1985-90, Cunningham was the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers. He originally joined the Chargers in the personnel department before being appointed defensive line coach after three months. Three of his six seasons in San Diego the Chargers led the NFL in sacks, including a franchise-record 62 sacks in 1986.

Cunningham entered the NFL as a defensive line coach for the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84) after spending one season as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the CFL. A linebacker at Allan Hancock College (CA) and the University of Oregon, Cunningham also spent 15 years coaching in the college ranks: Oregon (1969-70), Arkansas (1971), Stanford (1972-76) and Cal-Berkeley (1977-80).

A native of Munich, Germany, Cunningham (6/19/46) moved to the United States at the age of 11. Cunningham and his wife of 32 years, Rene', have two children, Natalie (24) and Adam (18). The couple lives in Brentwood, Tenn.

GEORGE HENSHAW • Asst. Head Coach/Offense

George Henshaw is in his fifth season with the Titans and his second as assistant head coach/offense. He was elevated to his current position in May 2000, after spending the 1999 season as the Titans' assistant head coach/running game.

Henshaw will work in conjunction with offensive coordinator Mike Heimerdinger with responsibility for game-planning the team's offensive attack as well as coaching the tight ends. Last season, TE Frank Wycheck led the team in receptions for the fifth consecutive season and earned his third Pro Bowl invitation.

The Titans' tight ends and H-backs have caught 322 passes during the last three seasons, the most in the league during that span.

Henshaw joined the Oilers in 1997 after serving as the offensive coordinator of the New York Giants for four seasons (1993-96). During his tenure with the Giants, the team boasted one of the best running games in the National Football League, including a league-high average of 138.1 yards per game in 1993. Before joining the Giants, Henshaw spent five years (1988-92) with the Denver Broncos, including a stint as the team's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 1992. Prior to that position, Henshaw coached Denver's wide receivers in 1991, and the Broncos offensive line from 1988-90. During that period, the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV. Prior to joining the Broncos, Henshaw was the head coach at the University of Tulsa for one season. After leading the Golden Hurricanes for the 1987 season, he joined the Broncos.

Henshaw began his coaching career at his alma mater, West Virginia, (1970-75) before moving on to Florida State University. He spent seven years (1976-82) as both an offensive and defensive line coach for the Seminoles, including four years (1979-82) as offensive coordinator. In his first two seasons as offensive coordinator, Florida State had a regular season record of 21-1. He worked with head coach Bobby Bowden to implement one of the best offensive systems in the country. From 1983-86, Henshaw served as the offensive coordinator as well as the offensive line coach for the University of Alabama, which led the SEC in total offense (424.1 yards per game).

A native of Midlothian, Va. (1/22/48), Henshaw is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia University. He and his wife, Kathleen, have three children: Michael (20), Matthew (18) and Kerry (15). Michael is a redshirt freshman safety at West Virginia University and Matthew will be a freshman quarterback at Florida State this fall.

CHUCK CECIL • Defensive Asst./Quality Control

Chuck Cecil enters his second season with the Titans/Oilers and first as a defensive assistant. Cecil finished his seven-year NFL career with the then-Houston Oilers in 1995.

Cecil was known for his thunderous tackling and aggressive style during his playing days as a safety for the Green Bay Packers (1988-92), Phoenix Cardinals (1993) and Houston Oilers (1995). Cecil earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and garnered All-Madden status in 1992 after four interceptions and 102 stops. In 95 career games, he totaled 400 tackles and 16 interceptions. He was originally drafted by the Packers in the fourth round (89th overall) of the 1989 NFL draft.

Initially a walk-on for the University of Arizona football team, Cecil would earn consensus All-America and Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors after a nine-interception senior season. Cecil owns the career interception record in the Pac-10 with 21. He was inducted into the Wildcats Sports Hall of Fame in 1993. He also spent two seasons (1999-2000) as a television analyst for the University of Arizona football games.

A California native, Cecil (11/8/64) is an avid golfer who has played a number of events on the Celebrity Golf Tour. Cecil is single and resides in Nashville.

CRAIG JOHNSON • Offensive Asst./Quality Control

Craig Johnson enters his second season as an NFL assistant coach as the Titans' offensive assistant quality control. He joined the Titans staff after spending the previous three seasons as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Maryland. During that tenure, he also served as the Terps' offensive coordinator for two years (1997-98).

In his last year at Maryland, the Terps led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense (235 yards per game avg.) and Johnson's quarterback, Calvin McCall, was one of the top-rated freshman in the country.

He served as the quarterback coach for five seasons at Northwestern University (1992-96). At NU, he was part of the first back-to-back Big 10 Conference champions (1995-96) in the school's history. Craig's quarterback Steve Schnur earned First-Team All Big 10 honors as a senior and posted a career-high 336 passing yard in the 1996 Rose Bowl against USC. In five years at NU, Johnson coached three All-Big 10 quarterbacks.

Prior to his stint at Northwestern, Johnson served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons (1989-91) at Virginia Military Institute. Under Johnson, VMI's offense ranked fifth in the nation in total offense in 1990 and led in rushing offense in 1991. He broke into college coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wyoming, in 1983 before moving on to the University of Arkansas in 1984 in the same capacity. In 1985, he was a part-time assistant coach at Army, tutoring the fullbacks. Johnson then served as running backs coach for three seasons (1986-88) at Rutgers.

A native of Rome, N.Y. (3/3/60), Craig grew up in Aurora, Colo. and earned three letters as a quarterback for the Cowboys, throwing for more than 1,100 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior in 1982. Johnson and his wife, Darlene, are parents of two daughters, Shelby (11) and Sydney (9).

ALAN LOWRY • Special Teams

Alan Lowry enters his fifth season as an assistant coach with the Titans and third as special teams coach. During the last two seasons, the Titans have returned four kicks for touchdowns and blocked four punts.

Last year saw the emergence of Derrick Mason as an elite returner, earning AP All-Pro honors and his first trip to the Pro Bowl as the AFC Return Specialist. The Titans also led the NFL in average starting field position at the 33-yard line. Overall, the Titans were one of only two NFL teams (Seattle)last year to rank in the top ten in the league in punt return average, kickoff return average, punt return defense and kickoff return defense.

In the 1999 season, the Titans were propelled to the Super Bowl with a number of plays on special teams including the "Music City Miracle" and Derrick Mason's 80-yard kick return in the AFC Championship Game. Lowry took over the Titans' special teams after coaching the club's wide receivers corps from 1997-98.

Lowry has spent 12 seasons coaching special teams from his positions with Dallas (1982-87), Tampa Bay (1991), and San Francisco (1992-95). He joined the Oilers in 1996 as defensive assistant/quality control and was promoted to the position of wide receivers coach one year later.

Lowry spent nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1982-90). He originally joined the Cowboys in 1982 as their special teams coach before shifting to receivers (1988-90). In 1991, he served as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-95. In San Francisco, Lowry and the Niners made two NFC Championship game appearances (1992,1994) and captured a Super Bowl Championship (XXIX).

A former quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas, Lowry earned All-Southwest Conference honors before jumping into the coaching ranks. Lowry began his coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1974 before moving to the University of Wyoming in 1975. He spent 1976 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys scouting department before returning to the University of Texas (1977-81) for five seasons as defensive backs coach.

A native of Miami, Okla., Lowry resides in Franklin, Tenn., with his wife, Donna. The couple has two daughters, Marta (18) and Lindsay (13).

MIKE MUNCHAK • Offensive Line

The backbone of the Titans' signature power running game is the club's offensive line. Former All-Pro guard Mike Munchak enters his fifth season as the Titans offensive line coach. He was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 4, 2001, becoming the fifth player in franchise history to be voted in.

Last season, Munchak's line paved the way for Eddie George to finish second in the conference with a career-high 1,509 rushing yards. Starters Brad Hopkins and Bruce Matthews represented the Titans in last years Pro Bowl in Hawaii. Over the last two years, the Titans line has allowed the second-fewest sacks in the league, 53, behind only Indianapolis (34).

One of the greatest Oilers of all-time, Munchak joined the Oilers front office in 1994, assisting the offensive coaching staff and providing quality control and then was promoted to offensive line coach in 1997. A former first-round draft choice of the Oilers (eighth overall) in 1982, Munchak played in 159 regular season games (fourth all-time on club's list) and 10 playoff games before retiring on July 21, 1994.

When he retired, Munchak owned the club mark with nine Pro Bowl invitations. He also had his uniform (#63) retired on November 6, 1996, marking only the fourth jersey in Oilers history to be retired (Earl Campbell's #34, Jim Norton's #43 and Elvin Bethea's #65 are the others). He also was named to the inaugural class of the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame last season and was elected to the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. Upon his induction into the Hall of Fame, he became the first player in club history to enter the Hall after playing his entire career with the Oilers/Titans.

A native of Scranton, Pa. (3/5/60), Munchak and his wife, Marci, have two daughters, Alexandria (15) and Julie (13).

SHERMAN SMITH • Running Backs

Former Seattle Seahawks running back Sherman Smith is in his seventh year as the Titans' running backs coach. Smith joined the Oilers in 1995, after spending three seasons at the University of Illinois. At Illinois, Smith served as tight ends coach from 1992-93 and added running backs coach to his title in 1994.

Smith has helped All-Pro RB Eddie George evolve into one of the premier running backs in the NFL. George leads the NFL in rushing (5,506 yards) over the last four seasons, and Smith also has aided George into becoming a more complete back, establishing new career-highs in receptions in each of the last three seasons.

A former standout during his collegiate career at Miami (Ohio) University, Smith coached the running backs at his alma mater for two seasons (1990-91) before moving to Illinois. After joining the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice in 1976, Smith went on to play nine years in the NFL.

Smith led a fledgling Seahawk team in rushing in each of his first four seasons, finishing his Seattle tenure with 3,429 yards and 28 touchdowns on 810 attempts, as well as 210 receptions for 2,445 yards with 10 touchdowns. Smith left Seattle among the all-time rushers in Seahawks' history before closing his NFL playing career with the San Diego Chargers from 1983-84.

As a quarterback at Miami (Ohio), Smith led the Redskins to the Mid-American Conference crown in his final three seasons while compiling a 33-1-1 record.

In 1984, Smith began teaching in the Northwest where he coached and taught at Redmond Junior High before returning to the college level as a coach in 1990.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio (11/1/54), he and his wife, Sharon, have a daughter, Shavonne (21), a senior at the University of Tennessee, and a son, Sherman (19), a sophomore defensive back at Miami (Ohio).

STEVE WALTERS • Wide Receivers

Steve Walters, a 30-year veteran of coaching, including 18 in the NFL, enters his third season with the Titans. Walters joined the club's coaching staff in 1999 after spending two seasons as wide receivers coach with the New England Patriots.

Walters spent two coaching stints with New England. He began his NFL coaching career with New England in 1992, serving as defensive backs coach for three seasons before serving as wide receivers coach with the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons (1986-96). During his tenure in New Orleans, his wide receivers set the record for most single-season receptions in franchise history.

Walters began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech in 1971. After two seasons, he accepted his first full-time position coaching receivers at Tampa University in 1973. He coached the defensive backs for two seasons (1974-75) at Northeast Louisiana before moving on to Morehead State as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. From 1977-78, Walters served as wide receivers coach at the University of Tulsa. In 1979, he coached quarterbacks at Memphis State before spending two seasons (1980-81) as secondary coach at Southern Methodist University under head coach Ron Meyer. Walters then moved to the NFL with New England after Meyer accepted the Patriots' head coaching position.

A native of Jonesboro, Ark. (6/16/48), Walters played defensive back at the University of Arkansas. He lettered in football, basketball and track at Springdale High in Arkansas. He earned his bachelor's degree at Arkansas and added his master's degree in physical education from Morehead State in 1976. Steve and his wife Susan are the parents of two children, Kirk (21) and Kasey (18).

JIM WASHBURN • Defensive Line

Jim Washburn enters his third season as the Titans defensive line coach. In each of his first two seasons, the Titans defense has established franchise record sack numbers with 54 in 1999 and 55 in 2000.

The line was paced by two-time Pro Bowler Jevon Kearse last year, who recorded 11.5 sacks and an AFC-best 26 over the last two-seasons. Over the last two years, the fiery Washburn has helped produce 74.5 sacks from the defensive line. Washburn joined the Titans as the defensive line coach after spending 1998 as the defensive line coach at the University of Houston.

Washburn joined the Cougars after four seasons as the defensive line coach at the University of Arkansas from 1994-97. A 26-year coaching veteran, Washburn went to Arkansas after coaching the Charlotte Rage of Arena Football in 1993. He also served as defensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in 1992, after a year as their defensive line coach in 1991. Washburn held dual roles as head coach and defensive coordinator of the Charlotte Barons, leading the team to a national championship.

Before entering the professional coaching ranks, Washburn was the defensive line coach at Purdue in 1989, at South Carolina from 1983-88 and at New Mexico from 1980-82. He began his coaching career as the strength and defensive line coach at Southern Methodist University in 1976. He then spent two seasons (1977-78) as defensive coordinator at Lees McRae Junior College (worked under Titans scout Cole Proctor, who was the head coach) before moving to Livingston University as defensive coordinator in 1979.

A native of Shelby, N.C. (12/2/50), Washburn was a four-year letterman at Gardner Webb College, where he earned his bachelor's in physical education in 1973. He added his master's degree from North Carolina A&T in 1975. Washburn and his wife, Sandy, have three children, Jessica (17), Jeremiah (23), who was an offensive lineman at Arkansas, and Brady (21), an offensive lineman at Appalachian State.

STEVE WATTERSON • Strength and Conditioning

One of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL, Steve Watterson is in his 16th season as the Titans strength and conditioning coach. In 1999, Steve was appointed to the National Research Council for Health (NRCH) Scientific Advisory Council. The NRCH maintains a highly qualified scientific advisory council comprised of health professionals across the country. NRCH was formed in 1977 to expand the scientific foundation and understanding of natural health science.

In 1992, Watterson received the greatest honor of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Titans and directs the club's successful off-season conditioning program. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before joining the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the head trainer at Tucson (AZ) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt credits Steve with his ability to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500.

Steve has advised NASCAR teams on training for proper biomechanics for their pit crews. As a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for AdvoCare Nutrition, Steve also has advised NASCAR teams such as Richard Petty's on proper supplementation for improved performance. Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, R.I. (11/27/56), Steve has two daughters, Kelsea (11) and Bergen (2), and two sons, Brock (5) and Cole (4). Recently re-married, Steve and his wife Heidi live in Brentwood, Tenn.

EVERETT WITHERS • Defensive Backs

Everett Withers enters his second NFL season and first season with the Titans as defensive backs coach, after spending three seasons (1998-2000) in the same position at the University of Texas.

A veteran of 13 college seasons, Withers guided a Longhorns' secondary which ranked 75th in the nation in pass defense in 1997 (132.7 efficiency rating) to first in the nation last season (88.02). Withers is credited with helping a young corps of defensive backs improve in a number of statistical categories after becoming familiar with the pro-style "bump-and-run" coverage philosophy.

Withers joined the Longhorns after three seasons (1995-97) as defensive coordinator at Louisville. His 1996 defensive unit ranked fourth nationally in both total defense (235.8) and rushing defense (81.1) and led the NCAA in forced turnovers (41). While at Louisville, Withers helped Dolphins All-Pro corner Sam Madison earn All-America honors for the Cardinals. Withers also gained experience with coaching stints at Southern Mississippi (Defensive Backs, 1992-93), Tulane (Outside Linebackers, 1991) and Austin Peay (Defensive Backs and Wide Receivers, 1988-90). He also spent one season as a defensive quality control coach for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

SAFETY #23

PRO: Continues his role as the 'heart and soul' of the Titans defense... despite his diminutive size, Bishop is one of the most revered safeties in the NFL...earned his fourth invitation last season and first start to the Pro Bowl, following invites after the 1995-97 seasons....can tie Ken Houston's franchise record for most selections by a DB to Pro Bowl (1968-72)...ranked second in tackles with 105 last season, his third consecutive season and fifth time in his career that he totaled more than 100-plus tackles...has led the secondary in tackles in each of the last seven seasons, including 1995 and 1996, when he led the team with 97 and 109 tackles, respectively...also tied Eddie Robinson for the team lead in tackles in 1999 with 113...has averaged 105 tackles over last five years...also averaging over seven tackles per game as starter (104 career starts, 740 tackles)...served as defensive team captain for second straight season...signed multi-year contract with club prior to '97 after being designated club's franchise player...originally an eighth-round selection (214th overall) by Oilers in 1993 NFL Draft.

Rags to Riches

As a senior in high school, he was "overlooked" by Division I-A and Division I-AA universities and settled on St. Joseph's College, a Division III institution. After one year at St. Joseph's, he transferred to Ball State, a Division I-A school, but had to pay his own way during his first season before he earned a scholarship.

2000: Started 16 games...ranked second on team with 105 tackles...marked fifth time in career and third consecutive season that he recorded 100-plus tackles... selected to fourth Pro Bowl of career, first as starter...named second-team All Pro by Associated Press...one of five Titans named to Football News All-AFC Team...recorded eight or more tackles in eight games...tied career-high with 3.0 sacks (1998)...led secondary in tackles for seven games, including first three games of season...tallied eight tackles, including two for loss in 17-14 overtime win against Kansas City (9/10)...his 10-tackles in 23-20 decision at Pittsburgh (11/5) tied for team-lead and was his 23rd career double-digit tackle game...tallied five tackles and three passes defensed in 23-14 win over Cincinnati (10/8), which saw Cincinnati's offense account for 84 net passing yards...tallied eight tackles in 27-13 victory against Jacksonville (10/16) on Monday Night Football...collected seven tackles and first sack of season against Tony Banks in 14-6 win at Baltimore (10/22)...recorded nine tackles and one pass defensed in 27-21 win at Washington (10/30) on Monday Night Football...posted second 10-tackle game at Philadelphia (12/3) in 15-13 win...paced secondary with seven tackles and two passes defensed in a 24-0 win at Cleveland (12/17)...tallied five tackles, two forced fumbles and one sack of Anthony Wright in 31-0 win against Dallas (12/25) on Monday Night Football...collected five tackles and one pass defensed in a 24-10 loss to Baltimore in AFC Divisional Playoff game (1/7).

1999: Started 15 games...sidelined for one game at New Orleans due to concussion...finished with 113 tackles, leading secondary for fifth consecutive season and falling three short of his career-high of 116, set in 1998...voted alternate to Pro Bowl...led Titans in tackles on five occasions...also tallied 2.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and three passes defensed...recorded team-leading 10 tackles in season-opening win over Cincinnati (9/12)...led team with 10 tackles and forced a Sedric Shaw fumble against Cleveland (9/19)...paced team for third consecutive week with 13 tackles at Jacksonville (9/26), one shy of career high...inactive at New Orleans (10/17) because of concussion suffered against Baltimore (10/10)...led team with 13 tackles against St. Louis (10/31)...recorded a half-sack of Kurt Warner in win over Rams...sacked Jeff Blake for 15 yards at Cincinnati (11/14)...also recovered fumble by Carl Pickens in the win over Bengals...played 100th career game and recorded a sack of Tim Couch in win at Cleveland (11/28)...left win over Atlanta (12/19) in first half with wrist injury, yet started following week in the 41-14 win over Jacksonville (12/26)...paced secondary with seven tackles in Tennessee's Wild Card win over Buffalo (1/8)...led team with 11 tackles in AFC Divisional Playoff win at Indianapolis (1/16)...forced a Mark Brunell fumble in AFC Championship Game win at Jacksonville (1/23)...also recorded seven tackles ...forced to leave Super Bowl XXXIV against St. Louis (1/30) early due to a neck injury.

1998: Started 13 games, missing three games due to injury...posted career-high 116 tackles, pacing secondary for fourth straight season...also registered three sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and a forced fumble...led the team with 12 tackles against San Diego (9/13)...had 10 tackles and one sack at New England (9/20)...also had 10 tackles and recovered a fumble versus Jacksonville (9/27)...earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after racking up 10 stops, one sack and an interception at Baltimore (10/11)...picked off Eric Zeier at the goal line on game's final play to preserve the win...collected career-high 14 tackles against Chicago (10/25)...sat out win at Pittsburgh (11/1)...paced defense with 11 stops at Tampa Bay (11/8)...left Steelers game (11/15) with left knee sprain, causing him to miss next two contests...recorded six tackles and a sack at Green Bay (12/20)...ended the season with 10 tackles against Minnesota (12/26).

1997: Started and played in 14 games...finished third on team in total tackles (82)...tied LB Lonnie Marts for team lead with three forced fumbles for year...selected to third consecutive Pro Bowl...suffered broken arm versus Raiders (8/31) and missed two games (at Miami, 9/7 and Baltimore, 9/21)...credited with two fumble recoveries at Seattle (10/5)...had season-high 10 stops and 1/2 sack at Arizona (10/26)...dropped QB Troy Aikman for a 9-yard loss at Dallas (11/27)...also forced fumble by TE Eric Bjornson that FS Marcus Robertson recovered and returned for TD...tied season-high with 10 tackles at Cincinnati (12/4).

1996: Started and played in 15 games...finished season as team leader in total tackles (109) for second consecutive season...voted to second Pro Bowl and earned UPI Second-Team All-AFC honors...recorded 11 stops at Jaguars...had arthroscopic surgery on right knee during bye week (9/16)...despite surgery, returned to lineup at Pittsburgh (9/29) and led team with 12 total stops...had 11 tackles at Saints (11/10)...dressed but did not play at New York (12/1) due to sore knee.

1995: Started all 16 contests...finished season as team leader in total tackles (97)...set career marks in fumbles forced (3), fumbles recovered (4) and passes defensed (11)...also led team in fumbles recovered...in addition to Pro Bowl, picked up All-Pro honors from Sports Illustrated (Dr. Z's All-Pro Team) and Football Digest (2nd team)...also received All-AFC accolades from Football News and UPI...returned interception 62 yards for first career touchdown at Browns (11/5)...underwent surgery to

LINEBACKER #56

PRO: Among the league's elite linebackers and is poised this season for Pro Bowl and All-Pro consideration...has amassed 115 or more tackles in each of last four seasons...set career-high with team-leading 169 tackles last season, the most by Oilers/Titans defensive player since John Grimsley (199 in 1986)... an intimidating force who controls the middle of field...plays with reckless abandon and is extremely instinctive...has started the past 70 consecutive games of career (54 with Dallas, 16 with Tennessee)...possesses astounding lateral movement and is quick to find his way to opposing ball carriers...has experience playing both inside and outside linebacker positions...helped defense vault from 17th in the league before arrival in 1999 to number one in 2000...was rated top linebacker in free agency during 2000 signing period...signed with Titans as unrestricted free agent on Feb. 16, 2000...originally selected by Dallas with second of two second-round choices (49th overall) of the 1996 NFL draft.

Helping Hand

Godfrey started the Randall Godfrey Foundation last year for at-risk youths and to assist high school athletes in preparation for the SAT's and ACT in Valdosta, GA.

2000: Started 16 games at middle linebacker leading team with a career-high 169 tackles...named AP second-team All-Pro...recorded 3.0 sacks, intercepted two passes, including one for a touchdown, two fumble recoveries and six passes defensed...posted double-digit tackles in nine games...led linebackers in tackles in every game during season...led or tied for team lead in tackles 13 times this season...started season with 14 tackle performance at Buffalo in 16-13 loss to Bills (9/3)...returned in Week 2 against Kansas City (9/10) to record 12 tackles in 17-14 overtime win over Chiefs...tallied 10 tackles and one pass defensed in 23-20 win at Pittsburgh (9/24)...credited with eight tackles in 23-14 win at Cincinnati (10/8)...paced defense with 13 tackles and one forced fumble (by Alvis Whitted) in 27-13 win against Jacksonville on Monday Night Football...posted 13 tackles and first two interceptions as a Titan, one of which was returned 24 yards for a touchdown at Baltimore in 14-6 win (10/22)...it was his first career touchdown...named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Baltimore...accounted for nine tackles in 27-21 win at Washington on Monday Night Football (10/30)... paced defense with 11 tackles in 9-7 win against Pittsburgh (11/5)...credited with two forced fumbles and tied season-high with 14 tackle performance against Baltimore in 24-23 loss to Ravens (11/12)...collected nine tackles, one pass defensed and sack of Mark Brunell at Jacksonville (11/26) in 16-13 loss to Jaguars...posted nine tackles in 15-13 win at Philadelphia (12/3)...started at linebacker for 70th consecutive game and recorded 13 tackles, one forced fumble (by Anthony Wright), one fumble recovery, 1.5 sacks of Anthony Wright, and two passes defensed against his former teammates, Dallas (12/25) on Monday Night Football... Named AFC Defensive Player of Week for his performance against Cowboys...started his fourth playoff game of career and posted 10 tackles, one pass defensed and sacked Trent Dilfer in 24-10 loss to Baltimore in AFC Divisional Playoff game (1/7).

1999: Started 16 games at middle linebacker after playing entire 1998 season on the outside...led Cowboys with 143 tackles...also recorded six tackles for loss, five passes defensed, one interception, one sack and four quarterback pressures...tied for team lead with nine tackles in his first start at MLB at Washington (9/12)...recorded a team-high 11 tackles on Monday night against Atlanta (9/20)...posted team-leading 13 tackles on Monday night at N.Y. Giants (10/18)...recorded 11 tackles, including two tackles for loss at Indianapolis (10/31)...led team with 11 tackles in shutout win over then-AFC East-leading Miami (11/25)...led defense with career-high 17 tackles at New England (12/5)...recorded third consecutive double-digit tackle performance with 13 tackles against Philadelphia (12/12)...picked off Ray Lucas for his second career interception in one-point loss against N.Y. Jets (12/19)...sacked and forced a Jake Delhomme fumble at New Orleans (12/24)...recorded eight tackles, including one for loss in NFC Wild Card loss at Minnesota (1/9).

> "Production-wise he has a chance to set the standard here and break whatever record there is, as far as the number of plays played, tackles, and all those things. Randall Godfrey has a chance to be one of the best, if not the best linebacker we've had in this system."
> — Buffalo Bills head coach and former Titans defensive coordinator Gregg Williams

1998: Started all 16 games at outside linebacker, ranked fourth on team with 115 tackles...led team with three forced fumbles and linebacking corps with a career-high three sacks and nine quarterback pressures...led team with 11 tackles in season-opening win against Arizona (9/6)...second on team with eight tackles and recorded first sack of the season at N.Y. Giants (9/21)...led team with season-high 13 tackles against Oakland (9/27)...tied for second on the team with 14 tackles against Washington (10/4)...had six tackles and recovered a fumble to set up a first-quarter field goal at Chicago (10/18)...recorded nine tackles and one sack at Arizona (11/15)...collected 11 stops at Kansas City (12/13)...recorded his first career interception against Washington (12/27), picking off a Trent Green pass in the end zone to halt a Redskin scoring drive...fourth on the team with six tackles, including two tackles for loss in his second career playoff game, a loss to Arizona (1/2/99).

1997: Started all 16 games...followed up his rookie season with an outstanding second year, finishing second on the team with 149 tackles...also recorded seven tackles for loss, six quarterback pressures, two passes defensed and one sack...led or tied for team lead in tackles five times...registered seven tackles at Pittsburgh (8/31)...tied for team lead with 11 stops at Arizona (9/7)...recorded his first career sack along with eight tackles at Washington (10/13)...led team with career-high 14 tackles against Arizona (11/9)...totaled 11 tackles and a tackle for loss against Washington (11/16)...made 11 tackles at Green Bay (11/23)...tied career high with 14-tackle effort against Carolina (12/8)...closed out season with seventh consecutive (eighth overall) double-digit tackle game, a 12-stop effort against N.Y. OFF. TACKLE #71

PRO: Outstanding competitor with great size and long arms...mammoth size makes for ideal tackle, but versatile enough to play guard...during NFL career, registered 39 starts at right tackle and 15 at left guard...started 38 consecutive games dating back to 1998...signed with the Titans as an unrestricted free agent from St. Louis on Feb. 16, 2000...originally drafted by Rams in fifth round (141st overall) in 1996 draft.

Helping People

Miller and his wife Kim were instrumental in bringing the "Nurses for Newborns Foundation" to Nashville. It exists to provide a safety net for families most at risk, helping to prevent infant mortality, child abuse and neglect through in-home nursing visits that provide healthcare, education, and positive parenting.

2000: Started all 16 games at right tackle after joining the team as a free agent from St. Louis...paved way for seven Eddie George rushing touchdowns to the right side of the line and 14 total rushing touchdowns...helped George to career-best total of 1,509 yards rushing, including six games with 100-plus yards rushing and two games with three touchdowns...part of o-line that allowed just 27 sacks, the third lowest sack total in NFL.

1999: Started 16 games at right tackle for Rams club that ranked first in the league in offense (400.8 yards/game) and ranked seventh in fewest sacks allowed (33)... offense produced seven 100-yard rushing games and nine 300-yard passing games... part of line that registered three sackless games (vs. Atlanta, Carolina,Chicago)...held All-Pro Defensive End Michael Strahan sackless against Giants (12/19)...started all three playoff games at right tackle.

1998: Started 15 games at left guard and played on special teams...showed versatility when moved from right tackle to left guard in training camp...participated in 86.6 percent of total offensive plays...helped Rams rush for season-high 181 yards against Buffalo (9/20)...part of line that held Bears' (11/8) defense sackless.

1997: Played 15 games with seven starts at right tackle...earned 12th Man offense award from coaches...made first NFL start vs. New Orleans (8/31)...limited Reggie White to two tackles and no sacks at Green Bay (11/9).

1996: Played in 14 games as multi-purpose offensive lineman...handled snapping for field goals...played both tackle positions...played first NFL game on special teams against Washington (9/22).

COLLEGE: Started 41 of possible 44 collegiate games...two-time all-Southwest Conference selection...played in East-West Shrine game and Hula Bowl...majored in sociology.

PERSONAL: Married to Kim (12/27/96), couple lives in Brentwood, Tenn. with sons Grant (9/22/99) and Evan (8/16/00)... named All-Greater Houston for the Eagles of Eisenhower H.S....participant in NFL's Punt, Pass and Kick as child...born Fred J. Miller Jr., Feb. 6, 1973, in Houston, Tex.

+ Injured Reserve

2000 SEASON

Game #1 • Sept. 3, 2000 • Ralph Wilson Stadium
Buffalo 16, Tennessee 13

Buffalo reserve quaterback Alex Van Pelt led a six-play, 41-yard drive in the game's final minute that culminated with a Steve Christie field goal to give the Bills a 16-13 win in the season opener. Van Pelt, filling in for an injured Rob Johnson late in the fourth quarter, completed four of eight passes, including a crucial 38-yard completion to Eric Moulds that put Buffalo well within Christie's range. The Buffalo defense held Tennessee to 172 yards of total offense, and Pro Bowl running back Eddie George was limited to 37 yards on 17 carries. The Titans successfully converted only two of 14 third-down attempts, and were flagged for 12 penalties for 112 yards. However, the Titans still had a chance to win late in the game, and tied the score with 8:44 remaining on George's two-yard touchdown run. After the Christie field goal with 31 seconds remaining, Derrick Mason almost produced another heartbreaking finish for the Bills on a special teams play, returning the kickoff 57 yards to the Tennessee 49. Tennessee advanced to the Buffalo 42 on a reception by George, and Craig Hentrich's 60-yard field attempt missed wide left as time ran out.

Game #2 • Sept. 10, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 17, Kansas City 14

Al Del Greco kicked the 14th game-winning field goal of his career, a 36-yarder that gave the Titans a 17-14 win over Kansas City. The win was the first of the season for Tennessee and the ninth consecutive win at Adelphia tying the NFL record for most consecutive victories to open a stadium. The teams were tied at seven at halftime, and the Chiefs took a 14-7 lead on a 16-yard touchdown reception by Derrick Alexander on the first play of the fourth quarter. Tennessee quarterback Steve McNair was knocked out of the game on a third-down hit by Duane Clemons, and Neil O'Donnell came off the bench to lead the Titans to the win. O'Donnell's first drive stalled at the Kansas City 20 after an incompletion on fourth down. The Titans defense held the Chiefs on the ensuing possession, and O'Donnell made the most of his second chance by leading an eight-play, 56-yard drive that culminated in an eight-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen. Tennessee won the coin toss in overtime and after electing to receive, O'Donnell led the Titans on a five-play, 58-yard drive that included a 27-yard run by Eddie George. Immediately after George's run, Del Greco came onto the field and kicked the game-winning field goal.

Game #3 • Sept. 24, 2000 • Three Rivers Stadium
Tennessee 23, Pittsburgh 20

The Titans' final trip to Three Rivers Stadium was a successful one, as Steve McNair came off the bench to throw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Erron Kinney to give the Titans a 23-20 win. McNair entered the game for an injured Neil O'Donnell on a third-and-11 play at the Pittsburgh 36 and quickly marched the Titans down the field, with the Kinney touchdown coming on McNair's fourth play. The Steelers' backup quarterback also entered the game in the fourth quarter, but Kordell Stewart's attempt to send the game into overtime failed when Kris Brown missed a 50-yard field goal with 30 seconds remaining. Seven Titans caught passes in the game, including Carl Pickens, who finished with two catches for 105 yards and set up a 20-yard touchdown run by Eddie George with a 67-yard reception from O'Donnell. The Titans held a 13-6 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Stewart's one-yard touchdown leap tied the score at 13. After an Al Del Greco field goal, Jerome Bettis scored on a five-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 20-16 lead. McNair's heroics were the difference, as he completed all three attempted passes for 55 yards on the final drive. The victory was Tennessee's sixth consecutive over Pittsburgh.

Game #4 • Oct. 1, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 28, New York Giants 14

The Tennessee Titans set the NFL record for consecutive wins to open a stadium by defeating the New York Giants 28-14 for their 10h win in as many games at Adelphia Coliseum. Tennessee completely shut down the Giants offense and Titans quarterback Steve McNair completed 24 of 35 passes for 293 yards and three touchdowns in the victory. New York's Thunder and Lightning combination of Tiki Barber and Ron Dayne were held to one yard on eight carries by the Titans defense, a unit that also forced four Giant turnovers. Eddie George rushed 35 times for 125 yards and one touchdown, while Derrick Mason led the team in receptions for the second consecutive week, catching six passes for 103 yards and a 29-yard touchdown. Frank Wycheck opened the scoring with the first of his two touchdown receptions on the day, a 14-yard strike from McNair in the first quarter. The Titans led 21-0 at halftime after George and Mason both scored second-quarter touchdowns. The Giants scored on an Ike Hilliard touchdown reception in the third quarter, but Wycheck's three-yard scoring reception with 12:26 remaining in the fourth quarter sealed the victory. The win was Tennessee's fifth consecutive over an NFC East opponent.

Game #5 • Oct.8, 2000 • Paul Brown Stadium
Tennessee 23, Cincinnati 14

Eddie George and the Titans controlled the clock and the ball for the second consecutive week en route to a 23-14 defeat of the Cincinnati Bengals on Tennessee's first visit to the new Paul Brown Stadium. George recorded a career-high 36 carries on the afternoon and finished with 181 yards rushing and one touchdown, a five-yard run that gave the Titans the lead for good in the third quarter. The Titans owned the ball for more than 40 minutes for the second consecutive week, and Tennessee recorded more than 200 yards rushing for the first time since a victory over Oakland on Dec. 9 of last season. Al Del Greco began the scoring with a 22-yard field goal on the first drive of the game, a 13-play, 66-yard effort that stalled at the Cincinnati five-yard line. The teams committed turnovers on each of their next possessions, and the score remained 3-0 at the end of the first quarter. On Cincinnati's first offensive play of the second quarter, Corey Dillon ran 80 yards for the first Bengal touchdown of the day to give the home team a 7-3 advantage. The Titans scored on the ensuing possession when Steve McNair capped off a 14-play, 74 yard drive with a 19-yard touchdown strike to Derrick Mason. The next Tennessee possession ended in disaster when Darryl Williams intercepted a McNair pass and returned it 36 yards for a touchdown. That ended the Cincinnati scoring for the day, and George's touchdown run and two Del Greco field goals sealed the Tennessee win. The Titans' defense allowed only 213 yards of total offense and had allowed only 29 yards passing before the Bengals' final drive.

Game #6 • Oct. 16, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 27, Jacksonville 13

An Adelphia Coliseum-record crowd saw the Tennessee Titans offense record more than 400 yards of total offense for the second consecutive week and Eddie George recorded the 26th 100-yard game of his career as the Titans rolled to their fifth consecutive win over Jacksonville, 27-13. George rushed for 165 yards and one touchdown on 30 carries and also caught three passes for 42 yards to give him his second consecutive week with more than 200 yards from scrimmage. Jacksonville opened the scoring with a Mike Hollis field goal in the first quarter but the Titans took over after that, scoring touchdowns on consecutive drives to take a 14-3 lead. Steve McNair threw touchdown passes to Frank Wycheck and Derrick Mason and Al Del Greco kicked a 26-yard field goal to give the Titans a 17-3 advantage at halftime. The Titans continued to dominate on the scoreboard in the second half with George's 19-yard touchdown run putting Tennessee in front by a score of 24-3. Hollis and Del Greco then traded field goals, and Anthony Johnson ended the scoring in the game with a two-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter. George's 100-yard game was his third in as many weeks, and the Titans not only extended their winning streak over the Jaguars to five but also recorded their 19th win in their last 21 AFC Central Division games. McNair turned in another excellent performance, completing 13 of 21 passes for 234 yards and two touchdowns.

Game #7 • Oct.22, 2000 • PSINet Stadium
Tennessee 14, Baltimore 6

Defense was the name of the game as the Tennessee Titans extended their winning streak to six games in a 14-6 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at PSINet Stadium. Baltimore quarterbacks Tony Banks and Trent Dilfer were intercepted four times by the Titans, including two by linebacker Randall Godfrey, who returned a Banks pass 24 yards for the final touchdown of the game in the third quarter. The Titans lost Pro Bowl running back Eddie George for the game with a sprained knee in the first quarter, and the Tennessee defense responded by allowing 368 yards to Baltimore but only six points, both on first-half field goals. The Ravens scored first as Matt Stover kicked the first of his two field goals midway through the first quarter. Baltimore's only other scoring drive resulted in a Stover field goal as well early in the second quarter to give the Ravens a 6-0 advantage. Steve McNair led a superb two-minute drive late in the first half that culminated in a nine-yard touchdown strike to Rodney Thomas with 44 seconds remaining in the half. Banks' struggles and the Titans' defense kept the Ravens off the scoreboard for the remainder of the game, and Godfrey's interception return for a touchdown ended the scoring early in the second half with Tennessee owning a 14-6 advantage. In addition to Godfrey's outstanding performance on defense, Kenny Holmes and Marcus Robertson also were standouts for the Titans. Holmes recorded two sacks and a forced fumble, while Robertson made 10 tackles and forced two fumbles against the Ravens. The current six-game winning streak is the first in the regular season for the team since 1993, and Tennessee has started 6-1 in consecutive years for the first time in the 41-year history of the team.

Game #8 • Oct. 30, 2000 • FedEx Field
Tennessee 27, Washington 21

The Tennessee Titans recorded the franchise's first seven-game, regular-season winning streak since 1993 with a 27-21 victory over the Washington Redskins on Monday Night Football. Tennessee used two return touchdowns to defeat the home Redskins, a 69-yard punt return by Derrick Mason and an 81-yard interception return by Samari Rolle on the last play of the first half. Rolle was the standout for Tennessee in the game by intercepting two Brad Johnson passes on the night, including the touchdown return. Mason's touchdown return was his first since he took back a kickoff 80 yards in the AFC Championship Game, and he also returned three kickoffs for 80 yards against the Redskins. On offense, Eddie George rebounded from last week's knee injury to lead the team in both rushing and receiving while recording 113 yards of the Tennessee total of 189 yards total offense in the game. Steve McNair completed nearly 78 percent of his passes (14 for 18) and hit Frank Wycheck for an 18-yard touchdown score early in the fourth quarter to extend the Tennessee lead to 27-14. The Tennessee defense forced three Johnson interceptions in the game, with Dainon Sidney picking off the Washington quarterback's last pass of the game in addition to the two previously intercepted by Rolle. The Titans extended their AFC Central Division lead to two games with the win heading into a showdown with second-place Pittsburgh.

Game #9 • Nov. 5, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 9, Pittsburgh 7

Al Del Greco's 29-yard field goal with four seconds remaining lifted the Tennessee Titans to their seventh consecutive win over the Pittsburgh Steelers, 9-7 at Adelphia Coliseum. The kick was the 17-year veteran's third of the day as well as the 15th game-winning field goal of his career and second of the season. The Titans controlled the ball and the clock for the majority of the game, and Eddie George rushed 34 times for 98 yards against a tough Pittsburgh defense. Derrick Mason caught a career-high eight passes for 92 yards, including three receptions for 47 yards on the Titans' final drive. Steve McNair led Tennessee to its second come-from-behind win over the Steelers this season, directing a 10-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in Del Greco's field goal. McNair completed 20 of 31 passes for 227 yards in the game and also rushed five times for a season-high 50 yards. The Titans defense dominated yet another game by holding the Steelers to 167 yards of total offense and former Pro Bowl running back Jerome Bettis to 42 yards on 13 carries. The Steelers were scoreless through three quarters marking the first time since 1997 that Tennessee held an opponent scoreless in a game until the fourth quarter. The Titans led 6-0 midway through the final frame before a broken coverage allowed Steelers tight end Mark Bruener to score on a 30-yard touchdown reception. Tennessee improved to 8-1 and remained unbeaten at Adelphia Coliseum.

Game #10 • Nov. 12, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Baltimore 24, Tennessee 23

The Tennessee Titans lost for the first time at Adelphia Coliseum as a valiant late charge engineered by Steve McNair ended with a missed 43-yard field goal attempt by Al Del Greco and gave the visiting Baltimore Ravens a 24-23 win. Trent Dilfer atoned for an earlier miscue when he led a nine-play, 61-yard drive that gave the Ravens a one-point lead on a two-yard touchdown reception by Patrick Johnson with 25 seconds remaining. On the previous possession, the Ravens appeared to be primed to take the lead, but Tennessee safety Perry Phenix picked off a Dilfer pass intended for Johnson and raced 87 yards for a touchdown. Del Greco then missed his first extra point in seven seasons to keep the Tennessee lead at 23-17. Baltimore jumped out to a 14-0 lead on a touchdown reception by Qadry Ismail and a two-yard touchdown run by Jamal Lewis, although the Titans answered with a 10-yard Derrick Mason touchdown reception. Baltimore led 17-14 at halftime, and a Del Greco field goal in the fourth quarter tied the score. After Baltimore's final touchdown, Chris Coleman gave the Titans excellent field position with a 27-yard kickoff return to the Tennessee 45. McNair then found Eddie George for an 11-yard gain and then scrambled 20 yards on the following play to the Baltimore 25. After McNair called time out with three seconds remaining, Del Greco's field goal attempt missed wide right and Baltimore emerged victorious.

Game #11 • Nov. 19, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 24, Cleveland 10

The Titans overcame seven turnovers to defeat the visiting Cleveland Browns 24-10 in front of a sellout crowd at Adelphia Coliseum. Eddie George rushed for 134 yards and a career-high three touchdowns on 36 carries with all three scores coming in the second half. The Titans' offense turned the ball over on its first four possessions and six of its first seven, including four fumbles and two Steve McNair interceptions. These turnovers gave the Browns excellent field position on several occasions, but the stifling Tennessee defense held the Browns scoreless in the first half. On the third play of the second half, the Cleveland defense produced a big play, as Browns defensive back Percy Ellsworth returned McNair's third interception of the day 33 yards for a touchdown. It was then that the Titans' offense finally finished a scoring drive, and tied the game on a four-yard George touchdown run. After the final Tennessee turnover of the game led to a Phil Dawson field goal, the Titans scored 17 unanswered points to put the game out of reach, including four and one-yard touchdown runs by George. The five first downs allowed by the Tennessee defense are the fewest since the team joined the NFL in 1970, and the 125 net yards allowed is easily the lowest total of the season. Derrick Mason's heroics also continued for Tennessee, as he caught six passes for 89 yards and was narrowly tripped up by Cleveland punter Chris Gardocki at the Browns' 10-yard line to prevent Mason's second punt return touchdown of the season. The Titans improved to 9-2 with the win.

Game #12 • Nov. 26, 2000 • Alltel Stadium
Jacksonville 16, Tennessee 13

Mike Hollis' 27-yard field goal on the game's final play gave the Jacksonville Jaguars a 16-13 win over the Titans and snapped a five-game losing streak to Tennessee. The kick capped off a 10-play, 61-yard drive by Mark Brunell after Tennessee kicker Al Del Greco missed a 28-yard field goal wide left that would have given the Titans a 16-13 lead. Jacksonville scored first in the game on a 27-yard field goal by Hollis, and Tennessee answered on the ensuing drive with a seven-yard touchdown run by Eddie George, who finished with 69 yards rushing and 107 yards receiving against the Jaguars. Jacksonville answered with a 10-yard touchdown reception by Fred Taylor, and Del Greco's 30-yard field goal with 7:35 remaining in the second quarter tied the score at 10. Hollis kicked a 20-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, while Del Greco booted a 38-yarder early in the fourth quarter to tie the score. Steve McNair completed 13 of 24 passes for 228 yards while also rushing for 46 yards on five carries to move into 10th place on the franchise's career rushing yardage list. George's receiving total represented the first 100-yard receiving total of his career, and Samari Rolle's two interceptions of Brunell increased his AFC-best total to seven. The win was only the second home victory in six tries for the Jaguars against Tennessee, and was the first of any variety in the series for Jacksonville since Sept. 27, 1998 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

Game #13 • Dec. 3, 2000 • Veterans Stadium
Tennessee 15, Philadelphia 13

Al Del Greco's 50-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the game split the uprights to give the visiting Titans a crucial 15-13 win at Philadelphia. The kick was the final of Del Greco's career-high five field goals on the day and allowed the Titans to remain in first place in the AFC Central and in prime position in their quest for home-field advantage. David Akers started the scoring in the first quarter with a 23-yard field goal, and Del Greco answered with two second-quarter field goals to give Tennessee a 6-3 lead. Akers tied the score with 1:12 remaining, and the teams entered the locker room at halftime deadlocked at six. Two more Del Greco field goals gave the Titans a 12-6 lead in the fourth quarter, but Eagles quarterback Donovan McNabb capped off an eight-play, 77-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run and Akers added the extra point to put Philadelphia in front by a count of 13-12. Titans quarterback Steve McNair, playing with a twisted knee and ankle, then led the Titans on a nine-play drive that included two key third-down completions to Chris Sanders and put the Titans in field goal range. Del Greco's third game-winning field goal then became the difference, and gave Tennessee the first win in franchise history over the Eagles. The win improved the Titans' record to 10-3, a mark that ties Tennessee with Miami and Oakland for the best record in the AFC.

Game #14 • Dec. 10, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 35, Cincinnati 3

Eddie George caught two touchdown passes from Steve McNair and rushed for another to pace the Tennessee Titans to a 35-3 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Adelphia Coliseum. The win clinched the second consecutive playoff berth for the Titans while keeping the team in prime position for home-field advantage in the playoffs. McNair, playing with a sprained ankle, completed 16 of 26 passes for 229 yards and three touchdowns, including a 56-yard strike to Yancey Thigpen to open the scoring. Thigpen finished with 89 yards receiving on the day, while Derrick Mason moved closer to the NFL record for combined yardage and caught a team-leading five passes for 92 yards. The Titans defense dominated the league's top rushing attack, holding the Bengals' offense to only 60 yards rushing and a field goal. Cincinnati crossed midfield only twice, and standout running back Corey Dillon was held to 42 yards rushing on 18 carries. George's 81 yards rushing gave him 1,250 on the season, a total that pairs him with Eric Dickerson as the only two backs to rush for more than 1,200 yards in each of their first five seasons. The win improved the Titans to 11-3 and kept them in first place in the AFC Central Division.

Game #15 • Dec. 17, 2000 • Cleveland Browns Stadium
Tennessee 24, Cleveland 0

Eddie George established himself as a serious MVP candidate by rushing for 176 yards and three touchdowns in the Titans' 24-0 win at Cleveland. The win was the first shutout for the franchise since a 24-0 win over the Jets in 1993, and George's heroics during this near-blizzard of an afternoon had the Titans in control from the beginning. George rushed a career-best 115 yards in the first half, and his two first-half touchdown runs combined with an Al Del Greco field goal to give Tennessee a 17-0 halftime lead. The Titans continued pounding the Browns in the second half, and George's 35-yard touchdown run with 12:51 remaining in the game ended the scoring in the game. The Tennessee defense had its best performance in a season of dominant efforts, holding the Browns to 113 yards of total offense and just 63 yards through the air. Several milestones were achieved in this game, including Bruce Matthews passing his brother and former Brown, Clay Matthews, for fifth on the career games played list by playing in the 279th game of his career. Derrick Mason set a new NFL record for combined yardage in a season, with his total of 2,567 eclipsing Lionel James' 1985 record of 2,535. Titans head coach Jeff Fisher became the most successful coach in franchise history with his 60th coaching victory, surpassing former Houston Oilers coach Bum Phillips with the win at Cleveland. The win improved the Titans to an NFL-best 12-3 and put them in position to clinch the AFC Central crown and home-field advantage throughout the AFC playoffs with a win over Dallas next Monday night.

Game #16 • Dec. 25, 2000 • Adelphia Coliseum
Tennessee 31, Dallas 0

It was the merriest of Christmas nights for the Tennessee Titans as they locked up the best record in the NFL and home-field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 31-0 victory over Dallas at Adelphia Coliseum. The victory allowed the Titans to claim their first AFC Central Division crown since 1993 with their league-best 13-3 record while also awarding Tennessee a first-round playoff bye. The shutout marked the only time in franchise history that the team has recorded shutouts in consecutive games, and the Titans defense finished as the top-ranked unit in the league for the 2000 season after holding Dallas to 95 yards of total offense. Tennessee overcame several first-half miscues and a slim 7-0 halftime advantage by forcing five Dallas turnovers, and Henry Ford and Keith Bulluck scored second-half touchdowns on returns of a fumble and interception, respectively. Eddie George eclipsed the 1,500-yard mark for the season with an 83-yard performance, including an 11-yard touchdown run early in the first half. It was simply a banner day for Tennessee, and linebacker Randall Godfrey dominated his old team by recording 13 tackles, 1.5 sacks, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. Steve McNair finished 17-of-23 passing for 188 yards and completed passes to eight different receivers, including a 17-yard touchdown strike to Derrick Mason in the first quarter. In another startling statistic, Tennessee held the Cowboys' passing attack to just nine yards net passing on the evening.

AFC Divisional Playoff • Jan. 7, 2001 • Adelphia Coliseum
Baltimore 24, Tennessee 10

The Baltimore Ravens used big plays on defense and special teams to advance to the AFC Championship Game with a 24-10 victory over the Tennessee Titans at Adelphia Coliseum. Anthony Mitchell returned a blocked Al Del Greco field goal attempt 90 yards for a touchdown to break a 10-10 tie, and NFL Defensive Player of the Year Ray Lewis returned an interception 50 yards for a touchdown to seal the Baltimore win with 6:41 left in the fourth quarter. The Titans took control of the game early, as Eddie George capped off an opening drive that spanned 11 plays and 58 yards with a two-yard touchdown run. Baltimore answered midway through the second quarter, with Jamal Lewis' 1-yard touchdown run following a 56-yard Shannon Sharpe reception to even the score at seven. Del Greco missed two field goals in the first half, but his 21-yarder in the third quarter gave the Titans a 10-7 lead. The Ravens' Matt Stover answered with a 38-yard field goal with 3:05 remaining in the game, with the touchdown returns by Mitchell and Lewis breaking the tie and proving to be the difference in the game. Regardless of the final score, it was a dominant performance by the Tennessee defense, as they held the Ravens to six first downs, 134 total yards, and only five completions by Baltimore quarterback Trent Dilfer. The loss ended the Titans' reign as AFC Champions and ended their season at 13-4.

1981 – Quarterback George Blanda (1960-66)

Blanda was the offensive catalyst for the explosive Oiler squads of the early 1960s. He played quarterback and handled the placekicking chores in Columbia blue for seven of his NFL-record 26 seasons in the league. Blanda was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of those seven seasons and still owns franchise records for most extra points (299), most touchdown passes in a season (36) and most touchdown passes in a game (7). He is also second in points scored with 596. The 36 scoring tosses stood as an NFL record for an astounding 23 years. Blanda's NFL career records include most games (340), most points (2,002) and most extra points (943). And, perhaps most importantly to Oilers fans, Blanda captained the Oilers to two consecutive AFL titles in 1960 and 1961. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

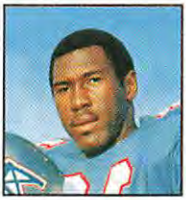

1986 — Safety Ken Houston (1967-72)

Houston is still considered one of the best safeties in football history. He picked off 49 passes over his 14-season NFL career and earned Pro Bowl honors 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL). Houston returned an NFL-record nine interceptions for a touchdown in his six seasons as an Oiler. Four of those scores came in 1971, which ties an NFL record. He returned two in one game against San Diego in the 1971 season finale, which also ties an NFL mark. Houston also holds the Oilers record for most career interception return yards with 650. Originally a ninth-round draft choice out of Prairie View A&M, Houston played his final eight seasons with the Washington Redskins. He played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm at the New York Giants on November 25, 1979. Houston was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

1991 — Running Back Earl Campbell (1978-84)

Perhaps the most recognizable Oiler, Campbell has a monopoly on the team rushing record book. Campbell, fresh off a Heisman Trophy campaign at the University of Texas, was the top pick in the 1978 NFL Draft and dazzled his audience from the outset. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He also holds team records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5). He finished his career in New Orleans. In addition, Campbell is one of just four people officially designated a Texas Legend by the Texas State Legislature. The others are Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin. Campbell is the only designee this century. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

1996 — Wide Receiver Charlie Joiner (1969-72)

Joiner played 18 seasons in the NFL, his first four with the Oilers. One of the league's most prolific receivers, he amassed 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. Joiner caught 82 of those passes as an Oiler, totaling 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns. He paced the squad with 681 yards and seven touchdown grabs in 1971. Joiner was traded to Cincinnati in 1972, then moved on to San Diego in 1976, where he flourished in the Chargers' wide-open passing attack until 1986. Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996, then ranking fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yardage on the NFL's all-time list.

2001 — Guard Mike Munchak (1982-93)

Munchak was the eighth player overall and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 National Football League draft. Selected by the Oilers, the former Penn State standout was an immediate success with the Houston club, earning the starting left guard spot in his first training camp. The 6-3, 281-pound lineman wasted little time establishing himself as one of the premier guards in the NFL. In 1984, in just his third year in the league, he was named to the first of seven All-AFC teams. That same year he received the first of nine Pro Bowl invitations. Not coincidentally, the Oilers' on-the-field successes increased as Munchak's development and experience increased. From their dismal 0-8-1 record in the strike-shortened 1982 season, the Oilers improved nearly every year that Munchak played. Along the way, the team advanced to the playoffs seven consecutive years (1987-1993) and captured the 1991 and 1993 AFC Central Divisional crowns.

Munchak was a devastating blocker and considered the key to an offensive line that kept the Oilers at or near the top of the NFL's offensive statistical categories. In 1988 he led the Oilers' offensive line that gave up just 24 quarterback sacks which was third in the NFL. It was also the fewest sacks allowed by the team in 10 seasons. The following season the offensive line held opponents to no sacks in six games. In 1991, the Oilers offensive line finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in the fewest quarterback sacks allowed. Behind the Munchak-led line, Houston led the NFL in total offense in 1990 and passing offense in 1990 and 1991. The Oilers finished second in points scored in 1990 and second in total offense in 1991. Equally effective as a run blocker, Munchak led the Oilers offensive charge in 1993 as the team finished fourth in the NFL in both average gain per rushing play (4.4) and average gain per offensive play (5.3). Although he suffered from chronic knee problems, Munchak played in 159 regular season games. His 12 seasons with the Oilers tied him for second longest in the franchise's history at the time of his retirement. He becomes the first player inducted into the Hall of Fame who played his entire career with the Oilers. Long-time teammate Bruce Matthews will present Munchak for induction. Munchak is part of a seven-member class that includes linebacker Nick Buoniconti, coach Marv Levy, tackle Jackie Slater, wide receiver Lynn Swann, tackle Ron Yary, and defensive end Jack Youngblood, inducted on Aug. 4, 2001.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

In the 41-year history of the Oilers/Titans franchise, only four players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired — Jim Norton (No. 43); Elvin Bethea (No. 65); Earl Campbell (No. 34); and Mike Munchak (No. 63).

43

Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the club record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton is tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

65

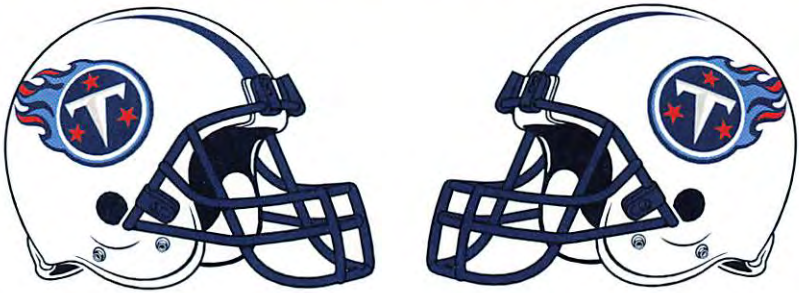

Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the 1968 season opener and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November, 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands third in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea currently holds the Oiler record for most seasons played (16, 1968-83), while his 210 games played (1968-83) stands second. Bethea led the team in quarterback sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on August 4, 1983.

34

Campbell, the Oilers' all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on August 13, 1987. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He also holds team records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5).

63

Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in 1982 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman selected in the draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is tied for third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980s and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He ranks second in club annals with nine Pro Bowl selections, seven as a starter. Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announced that jersey No. 63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on November 6, 1994. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 4, 2001.

ADELPHIA COLISEUM — Nashville

Years Played 1999-Present
Record* . . . . . .15-1 (regular season) 1-1 (playoffs)
First Game . . . . .9/12/99 — Tennessee 36, Cincinnati 35 (65,272)

Highlights: The Tennessee Titans have recorded a 15-1 home record, including an undefeated 9-0 home mark in 1999. Adelphia Coliseum opened its doors in the national spotlight with a preseason victory over the Atlanta Falcons on Aug. 27, 1999, in which country music star Faith Hill sang the National Anthem. Tennessee opened the regular season with a come-from-behind 36-35 victory over Cincinnati. But the most memorable victory of the season came in a 22-16 Wild Card victory over Buffalo on Jan. 8, 2000. In that game, Kevin Dyson fielded a lateral pass from Frank Wycheck with 16 seconds left and raced 75 yards down the sideline for the winning score. That play, which propelled Tennessee into an AFC Divisional showdown at Indianapolis the following week, was immediately dubbed "The Music City Miracle" and will go down as one of the most memorable moments in NFL history.

October 23—Houston ends Pittsburgh's seven-game win streak with Monday night victory over the Steelers, 21-17. It marks Houston's first win ever on Monday Night Football.
November 12—Houston comes from 23-0 deficit to capture 26-23 win over New England Patriots.
November 20—Earl Campbell rushes for four touchdowns against Miami Dolphins in Oilers' 35-30 victory. Campbell's two Monday night appearances net him 7 of his 13 season TDs.
November 26—Earl Campbell gains 100 yards rushing vs. Cincinnati before home crowd to tie NFL record for most 100-yard games by a rookie – 7 (ties Franco Harris and Don Woods). Also breaks Oiler single season records for most yards rushing (Hoyle Granger, 1,194 yards in 1967) and most rushing attempts (Charlie Tolar, 224 yards in 1962).
December 10—Houston captures 17-12 decision over New Orleans Saints to clinch berth in AFC Wild Card game versus Miami.
December 24—Houston wins first playoff game since 1961 by defeating Miami 17-9 in the Orange Bowl.
December 31—Oilers continue playoff march with 31-14 win against New England before 61,297 chilled fans in Foxboro, Mass.

January 7—Houston playoff dreams end as Pittsburgh takes 34-5 victory in AFC Championship Game. Oilers welcomed by 50,000 loyal fans in the Astrodome as radio station KILT sponsors homecoming.
January 30—Earl Campbell, Elvin Bethea, Robert Brazile and Curley Culp represent Houston in the Pro Bowl in Los Angeles.
August 3—Oiler T Greg Sampson undergoes brain surgery which signals the end to a promising career.
December 10—Before national television audience, Houston defeats division nemesis Pittsburgh 20-17, giving Oilers spot in 1979 playoffs.
December 17—Several Oilers lock up individual titles: Earl Campbell is NFL rushing champion for the second consecutive year; Mike Reinfeldt captures the crown for most interceptions in NFL with 12; Toni Fritsch is the most accurate field goal kicker, connecting on 21-25 attempts; and Jesse Baker leads the AFC in QB sacks with 15 1/2.
December 23—In first playoff game played in Houston since 1962, Oilers defeat Denver Broncos 13-7. Key offensive players Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini and Ken Burrough are all injured, and their status for the following game versus San Diego is questionable.
December 29—Oilers defeat San Diego 17-14 without injured Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini and Ken Burrough. Backup QB Gifford Nielsen plays conservative offense as Rob Carpenter, who was injured earlier in the week and was on crutches the night before the game, gains 67 yards rushing in his best effort of the season. The big star of the game is S Vernon Perry as he intercepts an NFL-record four passes in a playoff game.

January 6—In a rematch of the 1978 AFC Championship Game, the Steelers win 27-13 in a game that saw a controversial call keep Mike Renfro from scoring what would have been tying score late in third quarter.
January 7—In the wee hours of the morning, the Oilers return from Pittsburgh to an excited throng of 70,000 people at the Astrodome.
January 28—Six Oilers represent Houston in the Pro Bowl: RB Earl Campbell, T Leon Gray, PK Toni Fritsch, LB Robert Brazile, S Mike Reinfeldt and DE Elvin Bethea.
September 15—Before the largest stadium crowd to ever witness an Oilers' game (80,243), Houston defeats the Browns in Cleveland Stadium 16-7. The game was also televised before a national audience on Monday Night Football.
October 14—Oilers acquire All-Pro TE Dave Casper from Oakland for undisclosed draft picks.
October 19—Earl Campbell becomes only the second RB in the history of the Oiler franchise to rush for over 200 yards in a single game when he leads the Oilers to a 21-14 triumph over Tampa Bay with 206 yards. Club rushing record for single game is 216 yards by Billy Cannon (Dec. 10, 1961 vs. New York Titans).
October 26—Earl Campbell ties NFL record for most consecutive 200-yard games rushing (two) with 202 yards vs. Cincinnati in the Astrodome. Campbell now shares record with O.J. Simpson (Buffalo, 1973, 1976). Oilers defeat Bengals 23-3.
December 4—Houston's defense shuts out the Pittsburgh Steelers 6-0. Toni Fritsch provides all the points the Oilers need with two field goals. This marked the third evening prime-time win of the season for the Oilers as the game was played in the Astrodome before a sellout crowd and a national television audience. It marked the first shutout registered by the Oilers since a 47-0 win over the Chicago Bears. (November 6, 1977).
December 21—Oilers clinch third playoff spot in as many years with 20-16 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the Astrodome. Earl Campbell sets NFL record by rushing for over 200 yards in single game four times in one season. He finishes season with 1,934 yards, second highest total in NFL history behind O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. The Oilers must wait until the final game of the season to see who their playoff opponent will be, as their 11-5 record equals that of division foe Cleveland, but Oilers become Wild Card participant due to tie-breaker procedures.

December 28—Oilers season comes to an end with disappointing AFC Wild Card loss at the hands of the eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders. The loss marks the third consecutive year that the Oilers have been eliminated from the playoff picture by the eventual Super Bowl champions (Pittsburgh Steelers in both 1978 and 1979).
December 31—K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., relieves Bum Phillips of his duties as Head Coach and General Manager. Ladd K. Herzeg is promoted from post of Senior Vice-President/Chief Administrative Officer to the position of Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Oilers.

The Oilers fall short after battling back from a 17-0 deficit as QB Warren Moon establishes personal bests for attempts (51), completions (32) and yards (414, most since George Blanda's 418 in 1961). Oilers set all-time single season attendance record with 451,027 fans, eclipsing 411,652 in 1978.
December 31—In an AFC Wild Card playoff game, the Oilers lose a 26-23 OT decision to the Pittsburgh Steelers as PK Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal. Houston WR Ernest Givins catches 11 passes for 136 yards and two TDs.

January 6—Jerry Glanville leaves his position as Oilers' head coach by "mutual agreement."
January 9—Jack Pardee signs a five-year contract to become the 14th head coach in Houston Oiler history. Pardee joins the Oilers after enjoying a successful three seasons as the head coach at the University of Houston.

January 12—Head Coach Jack Pardee announces the hiring of three of his University of Houston assistant coaches to Oiler posts. Named to Pardee's Oiler staff are Defensive Coordinator Jim Eddy, Offensive Line Coach Bob Young and Defensive Backs Coach Pat Thomas.

January 30—The Oilers extend the contract of Executive Vice President/General Manager Mike Holovak. In addition, the team names former LBs Coach Floyd Reese to the newly-created position of Assistant General Manager and promotes Quarterbacks Coach Kevin Gilbride to Offensive Coordinator. Also, the team announces the signing of a multi-year contract that allows KTRH-AM/KLOL-FM to broadcast all Oiler football games beginning in 1990.

March 15—The Oilers announce that Raycom Sports Network has agreed to a multi-year contract to televise Oiler preseason games plus a weekly wrap-up show.

September 23—The Oilers win their 1990 home opener 24-10 over the Indianapolis Colts as QB Warren Moon becomes the all-time leading passer in club history. Moon throws for 308 yards (plus three TDs) to surpass George Blanda's team record of 19,149 yards. The record fell on a third quarter seven-yard pass to WR Haywood Jeffires. WR Drew Hill catches ten passes for 123 yards to help key the victory.

September 30—The Oilers capture their first road win of the season, defeating the Chargers 17-7 as QB Warren Moon throws for 355 yards, and WR Drew Hill records his 50th career touchdown. Moon's 27 completions allows him to pass Dan Pastorini's club record of 1,426.

October 14—QB Warren Moon passes for 369 yards and a career-best five TDs as the Oilers hammer the Cincinnati Bengals 48-17. Moon thus becomes the first player in pro football history to throw for over 20,000 yards in two different leagues (21,228 in Canadian Football League).

December 2—Despite losing 13-10 in overtime at Seattle, QB Warren Moon's 232 passing yards allow him to break his own single-season club passing record of 3,631 yards (set in 1989).

December 9—The Oilers shatter several team records while drubbing Cleveland 58-14. Included among the records set are most points in a game, in a quarter (31) and in a half (45). RB Lorenzo White ties a club mark with four rushing touchdowns, the first time that has been accomplished in the NFL in two years.

December 16—The Oilers win a key road game, beating Kansas City 27-10 at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Warren Moon again supplies the big news, completing 27-of-45 passes for 527 yards. That represents the second-best single-game passing performance in NFL history. The record belongs to the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin, who threw for 554 yards against the New York Yanks on September 28, 1951. Moon had an opportunity to break the record but declined to do so based on the Oilers' comfortable lead. Almost overshadowed by Moon's effort was WR Haywood Jeffires catching nine balls for 245 yards (including 87-yard TD), which marked the second best receiving day in Oiler history. Charles Hennigan had 272 receiving yards versus the Patriots on October 13, 1961.

December 19—Six Oilers are named to the AFC squad for the February 3 Pro Bowl. The six include starters G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak, plus reserves DT Ray Childress, WR Ernest Givins and WR Drew Hill.

December 23—The Oilers lose an opportunity to cement their grasp on first place in the AFC Central Division by losing at Cincinnati 40-20. Additionally, QB Warren Moon is lost for the remainder of the season after suffering an open dislocation of his throwing thumb.

December 29—Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams and San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell jointly announce a tentative agreement for the Oilers to hold their annual summer training camp in San Antonio. Also, it is announced that the Oilers will serve as the host team for preseason games in San Antonio's Alamodome when that facility is completed in 1993.

December 30—Led by backup QB Cody Carlson, the Oilers earn a Wild Card playoff berth by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-14 in the Astrodome. Carlson completes 22 of 29 passes for 247 yards and three TDs. With the victory, the Oilers end up in a three-way tie for first place with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in the AFC Central.

January 6—The Oilers' 1990 season comes to a close as they are eliminated from the playoffs by the Cincinnati Bengals. Houston loses at Riverfront Stadium 41-14 in an AFC Wild Card game.

January 26—It is announced that Earl Campbell has been voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The announcement is made in Tampa, Florida. Campbell is to be enshrined on July 27.

May 17—The Oilers and the City of San Antonio formally sign six-year contract which will allow the Oilers to hold training camp there. Trinity University is chosen as the host school.

September 16—In a pre-game ceremony, Earl Campbell receives his Hall of Fame ring from Hall Executive Director Pete Elliott. In the game that follows, the Oilers defeat Kansas City 17-7 to signal the first 3-0 start in franchise history.

October 13—In a 23-20 victory over the Jets at Giants Stadium, WR Haywood Jeffires ties Charlie Hennigan's 30-year-old team record for receptions in a game with 13 (186 yards). QB Warren Moon completes 35-of-50 passes for 423 yards, which is the fifth-best total in team annals. Also, WR Drew Hill surpasses Hennigan's 410 catches to become the all-time leading receiver in Oiler history.

November 3—Despite a 16-13 OT loss at Washington, WR Drew Hill moves past WR Ken Burrough's 6,907 receiving yards to become the Oilers' all-time leader in that category.

November 10—QB Warren Moon establishes career highs for completions (41) and attempts (56) as he throws for 432 yards, which is fourth best in team history, in Oilers' 26-23 OT victory over Dallas. Moon also passes Fran Tarkenton's 47,003 yards and moves into second place behind Ron Lancaster on all-time professional passing yards chart.

December 8—The Oilers defeat the Steelers 31-6 in the Astrodome as Houston captures its first-ever undisputed AFC Central Division championship. QB Warren Moon throws for 254 yards and becomes just the third QB in NFL history (Miami's Dan Marino, San Diego's Dan Fouts) to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons.

December 15—QB Warren Moon surpasses Dan Marino's NFL record (378 in 1986) for completions in a season as the Oilers beat the Browns 17-14.

December 18—Eight Oilers (tied NFL-best), including a league-high six starters are named to the AFC team for the February 2 Pro Bowl. The six starters include CB Cris Dishman, DE William Fuller, WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. DT Ray Childress and QB Warren Moon are also named to the squad although Childress was eventually unable to play because of a back/rib injury.

December 21—WR Haywood Jeffires becomes just the fifth player in NFL history to record 100 receptions in a single season despite the Oilers' 24-20 road loss to the Giants. Coupled with Drew Hill's 90 catches, that pair's 190 represents the most receptions by two teammates in one season in league annals. In addition, QB Warren Moon eclipses Dan Marino's NFL record (623 in 1986) for attempts in a season. DE William Fuller registers his 15th sack of the season and thus becomes the first Oiler ever to lead the conference in that category.

December 29—The Oilers defeat the New York Jets 17-10 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game before 61,485 fans in the Astrodome. S Bubba McDowell intercepts two key passes inside the Oiler five-yard line to preserve the win.

January 4—After leading for most of the game, the Oilers end up losing a heartbreaking 26-24 decision to the Denver Broncos in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in front of 75,301 fans at Mile High Stadium. PK David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in the game proves to be the deciding points. The loss mars a great performance by Oiler QB Warren Moon, who completes 75% of his passes (27 of 36) for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

March 6—The Oilers name Steve Underwood as General Counsel. Underwood joins the Oilers from the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst where he has handled most of the team's legal work since 1977.

August 1—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 34-23 in the American Bowl in Tokyo, Japan, which marks Houston's first game outside of the United States.

August 31—The Oilers and QB Warren Moon reach agreement on a new multi-year contract that includes a settlement of a controversial escalator clause.

September 29—The Oilers sign free agent WR Webster Slaughter to a two-year contract. Slaughter had been one of four players who were declared free agents by a Minneapolis judge on September 24.

October 11—In a 38-24 win at Cincinnati, QB Warren Moon ties a personal best with five TD passes to eclipse George Blanda's team record for career touchdown passes (165, Moon now has 169). Also, WR Haywood Jeffires catches three TD passes to tie the franchise record, and RB Lorenzo White rushes for a career-best 149 yards.

October 18—QB Warren Moon becomes the leading passer in professional football history by surpassing Ron Lancaster's 50,535 yards (in 19 years). After the Oilers' heartbreaking 27-21 loss at Denver, Moon now has 50,589 yards. Moon's total, accumulated in less than 15 seasons, includes 21,228 yards in the CFL and 29,361 yards in the NFL.

November 15—In Houston's 17-13 win at Minnesota, QB Warren Moon suffers a fractured upper left arm on a fourth quarter hit by Viking S Vencie Glenn and misses the next five games. Despite the injury, Moon becomes just the 14th NFL QB to surpass 30,000 passing yards as he accomplishes that faster (125 games) than any player in league history except for Miami's Dan Marino (114 games).

November 26—Subbing for the injured Warren Moon, QB Cody Carlson throws for a career-high 338 yards as the Oilers defeat the Lions 24-21 on Thanksgiving Day in Detroit.

December 11—After being diagnosed with kidney cancer, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride undergoes surgery for the removal of his cancerous kidney. He misses two games as Receivers Coach Chris Palmer and injured QB Warren Moon help to handle Gilbride's game day responsibilities.

December 23—An NFL-best nine Oilers earn Pro Bowl honors with four players designated as starters for the February 7 game. The starters include WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. The Houston reserves feature DT Ray Childress, WR Curtis Duncan, WR Ernest Givins, QB Warren Moon and RB Lorenzo White. The inclusion of Jeffires, Givins and Duncan represents the first time ever that three receivers from the same team have been designated as Pro Bowlers.

December 20—Shortly after their exciting, come-from-behind 17-14 win at Cleveland, the Oilers learn that they have clinched a playoff berth for the sixth straight season. That represents the longest current post-season streak in the NFL.

December 27—As Houston routs Buffalo 27-3 in the regular season finale, WR Haywood Jeffires catches six passes to finish with 90 receptions. He thus leads the AFC in that category for the third straight season, becoming only the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat.

January 3—The Oilers lose a 41-38 OT decision at Buffalo in an AFC Wild Card playoff game. QB Warren Moon completes 36 of 50 passes for 371 yards and four first-half touchdowns.

January 29—The Oilers name Buddy Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator.

July 2—NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue rules in a dispute between the Oilers and Redskins. Tagliabue completes a trade which sends Washington LB Wilber Marshall to Houston in exchange for the Oilers' third-round draft choice in 1994 and their fifth-round selection in 1995.

November 14—WR Haywood Jeffires ties a team record with three touchdown receptions and QB Warren Moon throws four TD passes in just over two quarters of playing time as the Oilers rout the Bengals 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium. RB Gary Brown earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by rushing for 166 yards in his first NFL start, which marks the most yards by an Oiler back in 12 years.
November 21—RB Gary Brown explodes for 194 rushing yards to lead Houston to its fifth consecutive win, a 27-20 victory at Cleveland. Brown's rushing total is the highest by any AFC back in three years and the most by an Oiler in 13 years. His back-to-back running sum of 360 yards is also the team's best in 13 seasons. Brown becomes the first NFL back in ten years to gain over 100 yards in his first two career starts. Also, S Marcus Robertson ties a team record by becoming the first Oiler in 22 years to get three interceptions in a game.
November 28—In the Oilers' 23-3 Astrodome victory over the Steelers, WR Ernest Givins passes Drew Hill's 480 catches to become Houston's all-time leading receiver.
December 5—As Houston captures its seventh straight win with a 33-17 home decision over Atlanta, the Oilers' defense forces seven turnovers (including a team record-tying six interceptions) for its highest such total in 16 years.
December 14—Oiler DT Jeff Alm commits suicide following the death of his best friend in a traffic accident. The Oilers hold a memorial service for their teammate the following day.
December 19—The Oilers clinch their second outright AFC Central Division championship with a 26-17 win over the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. Houston thus cements a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, the longest current streak in the NFL. The Oilers also become just the second team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to go undefeated within the AFC's Central Division (also 1975 Steelers). Against Pittsburgh, PK Al Del Greco surpasses the team record of 115 points in a single season.
December 28—G Mike Munchak establishes an Oiler record by being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth time (Elvin Bethea had eight appearances).

January 2—The Oilers close the regular season with their club record 11th consecutive win, a 24-0 shutout of the Jets in the Astrodome. The winning streak is the longest in the NFL in nine years as the Oilers become just the fifth team in league history to close a season with 11 straight victories. The Oilers also set a franchise record with 12 wins for the season and go undefeated in both November and December for just the third time ever. Amazingly, RB Gary Brown finished with 1,002 yards in just eight starts.
January 27—The Oilers promote Assistant General Manager Floyd Reese to the position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager. Reese succeeds Mike Holovak, who assumes the title of Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting.
February 8—The Oilers promote Kevin Gilbride to Assistant Head Coach/Offense and name Dick Coury as the team's Offensive Coordinator.
February 9—Houston names Jeff Fisher as its new Defensive Coordinator, replacing Buddy Ryan, who left the Oilers to become General Manager/Head Coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

OVERTIME RESULTS

December 23, 1962 - Dallas 20, at Houston 17: Texans win the toss but elect to kick. Each team gets three cracks at winning the game in the first overtime before K Tommy Brooker's championship-winning 25-yard field goal at 12:06 of the second OT.

October 30, 1977 - at Cincinnati 13, Houston 10: Bengals win the toss. QB Ken Anderson's 17-yard completion to WR Billy Brooks is the long play prior to K Chris Bahr's winning 22-yard field goal at 5:51 of OT.

September 23, 1979 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Oilers win the toss. On opening series, Bengals force Cliff Parsley punt. Cincinnati drives to Oilers' 14-yard line, but K Chris Bahr misses a 32-yard field goal attempt. Houston again has to punt on its ensuing series. The Oiler defense then forces a punt by the Bengals' Pat McInally. Houston takes over on the Cincinnati 42. RB Earl Campbell's 15-yard run is the long play prior to K Toni Fritsch's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:28 of OT.

October 28, 1979 - at Houston 27, N.Y. Jets 24: Oilers win the toss. QB Dan Pastorini's 22-yard completion to FB Rob Carpenter is the long play as Oilers drive 58 yards. K Toni Fritsch kicks the winning 35-yard field goal at 5:10 of OT.

November 23, 1980 - at N.Y. Jets 31, Houston 28: Jets win the toss. A personal foul on Houston's Guido Merkens on the kickoff gives New York possession at the Jets' 40-yard line. QB Richard Todd's 17-yard screen pass to RB Bobby Harper is the long play prior to K Pat Leahy's winning 38-yard field goal at 3:58 of OT.

September 4, 1983 - Green Bay 41, at Houston 38: Packers win the toss. RB Eddie Lee Ivery's 12-yard run is the long play as Packers drive 59 yards. K Jan Stenerud kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 5:55 of OT.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. K Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. K Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:35 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to K Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

*January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. K Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, subbing for injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to K Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. K Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-TE Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

*December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merril Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

OVERTIME RESULTS

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon, with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, K Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR J.J. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Cris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White runs once for two yards before K Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

*January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27-yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes, who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffires is penalized for a face mask infraction, which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, K Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

November 6, 1994 - Pittsburgh 12, at Houston 9: Steelers win the toss. Both teams exchange five punts before the Oilers gain possession on their 12-yard line with 4:30 left in the extra period. On the first play from scrimmage, RB Gary Brown scoots up the middle for 8 yards before being hit by CB Rod Woodson. He fumbles and the Steelers take over at the Oilers 22-yard line. Two plays later, K Gary Anderson hits from 40 yards out for the winning score at 3:36 of OT.

October 8, 1995 - at Minnesota 23, Houston 17: Vikings win the toss. The Vikings move the ball to their 38-yard line but are forced to punt. Minnesota P Mike Saxon then pins the Oilers in at their 8-yard line with a 54-yard boot. On his third carry of overtime, RB Rodney Thomas scampers 27 yards to give the Oilers a first down at their 35. QB Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler after he injured his shoulder while being sacked on the Oilers' last offensive series in the fourth quarter, is intercepted on his second pass attempt by CB Dewayne Washington (25-yard return). RB Robert Smith takes his third consecutive carry of OT 20 yards for the winning score with 7:10 gone in the extra stanza.

October 6, 1996 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Bengals win the toss. The Bengals go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Oilers the ball inside their own 20-yard line. On second down at the Oilers' 16-yard line, QB Chris Chandler connects with WR Willie Davis on a 37-yard pass to move into Cincinnati territory. Six plays later, K Al Del Greco hits from 49 yards out for the winning score at 4:22 of OT.

August 31, 1997 - at Tennessee 24, Oakland 21: Oilers win the toss. Oilers go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Raiders the ball at their own 33-yard line. The Raiders also go three-and-out and punt the ball to the Oilers. Tennessee takes over the ball at its own 35-yard line. On second-and-eight, QB Steve McNair connects with Frank Wycheck for 21 yards to the Raiders 42-yard line. Again on second down, McNair finds Wycheck, this time for 10 yards to the Raiders 32-yard line. On the next play, McNair scrambles for an 11-yard gain. RB Eddie George gains six yards before Al Del Greco hits the game-winner from 33 yards away with 8:03 left on the clock in overtime. The win is the Oilers first since relocating to Tennessee from Houston.

September 7, 1997 - at Miami 16, Tennessee 13: Dolphins win the toss. The Oilers kick to Dolphin return man Irving Spikes, who returns the kickoff 48 yards to the Oilers 45-yard line. On second down, Dan Marino hits RB Bernie Parmalee for a 16-yard gain. Again on second down, Marino connects with Fred Barnett for a 9-yard gain. On the play, Oiler DB Tomur Barnes was flagged for an unnecessary roughness penalty which moved the ball to the Oilers 11-yard line. On the next play, Olindo Mare knocks home a 29-yard field goal with 12:45 remaining in overtime.

September 10, 2000 - at Tennessee 17, Kansas City 14: Titans win the toss. The Chiefs kick to Derrick Mason, who returns the kick 28 yards to the Tennessee 29-yard line. A face mask penalty moves the ball to the 34-yard line. On third-and-eight, QB Neil O'Donnell passes to Kevin Dyson for 27 yards. A 26-yard pass to Frank Wycheck on the next play is negated by a holding penalty. Eddie George then rushes 29 yards to the Kansas City 18-yard line. On the next play, Al Del Greco kicks a 36-yard field goal with 12:02 remaining in overtime.

In recognition for his many charitable endeavors, Gregory Burns of the Nashville Sports Council presented the "2000 Community Spirit Award" to Adams at its annual Dinner of Champions on February 1, 2001. Adams' generosity and concern for others was again demonstrated in his hometown of Houston during the floods that caused millions of dollars in damage in June of 2001.

Houston Flood Relief

Adams teams with Texans to help victims

The Tennessee Titans and the Houston Texans begin their twice-a-year battles in 2002 when the expansion Texans begin play in the AFC South division. Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. and Bob McNair, owner of the Texans, joined forces to fight a different type of battle - the massive flooding caused by Tropical Storm Allison in June 2001.

Adams and McNair, who live less than one block from each other, presented a combined gift of $300,000 to the "Spirit of Texas Fund" which was created by the Greater Houston Area Red Cross to assist flood victims.

"Bob and I gave $100,000 each and we also got NFL Charities to contribute an additional $100,000," said Adams. "I've lived in Houston for 55 years and I've never seen anything like this. I was here when Hurricane Carla killed 34 people and when Alicia caused 21 deaths, but I've never seen as much devastation as these floods have caused."

More than 30 inches of rain pounded the city, causing 17 deaths and millions of dollars in damages.

Adams' gift was a personal one as The Tennessee Titans Foundation is restricted to providing grants to charities within the state of Tennessee. Adams and NFL Charities also contributed $100,000 each to the American Red Cross of Greater Nashville following the April 16, 1998 tornados that devastated Nashville and Middle Tennessee.

ADELPHIA COLISEUM

The Titans play in one of the NFL's premier stadiums in Adelphia Coliseum. The 68,498-seat, open-air, natural-grass Coliseum is located on 105 acres on the east bank of the Cumberland River overlooking downtown Nashville. It was built by HOK Sports Facilities Group of Kansas City, Mo, the same group that has designed many of the NFL's new stadiums, including ones for the Cleveland Browns and Cincinnati Bengals. HOK also built stadiums for the Jaguars, Panthers, and Dolphins, among other sports facilities and arenas.

Among the features:

- Open-air, natural grass
- 175 corporate suites
- Two 25,000-square foot club lounges with access to high-quality food and beverage services, sit-down eating areas, closed circuit TV's and sound systems
- 12,000 club seats
- 60 concession stands throughout stadium
- Three locker rooms
- Two scoreboards with video screens located on north and south ends of stadium
- 4 suite elevators
- More than 2,000 trees planted within the 105 acres
- 7,500 parking spaces available on-site with more than 20,000 existing parking spaces nearby
- Space for 400 wheelchair patrons and associated companion seats
- 90 parking spaces for disabled
- Tifsport Bermuda sod
- Sophisticated field irrigation and drainage system
- State-of-the-art press box

BAPTIST SPORTS PARK

On May 15, 1998, Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., selected a 31-acre site at the MetroCenter complex in Nashville as the team's permanent practice location. Since that time, a beautiful multi-million dollar facility has been built by Nashville-based Powell Building Group on the property, located just north of downtown Nashville about five miles from Adelphia Coliseum.

The team moved into the facility on August 26, 1999, the day after training camp completed and the day before the first preseason game at Adelphia Coliseum. The 80,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art building contains lockers, weight rooms, meeting rooms and offices for coaches, players and administrative staff. The building also features an auditorium with seating for 125 people, as well as other meeting rooms.

Baptist Sports Park contains state-of-the-art facilities for the team's players, coaches and staff.

The weight training center and rehabilitation treatment facility sets the model for all professional sports. Designed to exceed the standards of all previous training and practice facilities, the new Titans' complex will be the envy of professional training centers for decades.

The facility boasts three outdoor practice fields with natural grass, plus an enclosed field with artificial turf. Logistically, each field is identical to Adelphia Coliseum, from the 100-yard length to the geographic orientation. The longitudinal center of each field is 24 degrees west of north, just like the field at Adelphia, enabling the Titans to practice in the same slanting sunlight they face on Sundays.

The site, selected from more than 60 sites reviewed, was purchased from MetroCenter properties. The new facility occupies a peninsula that joins into the lake across from the Fountain Square commercial development. Among the leading builders in middle Tennessee, Powell was chosen for its state-of-the-art construction planning and building techniques.

With an award-winning broadcast team, the Mid-South's most knowledgeable analysts, comprehensive gameday coverage, fans' exclusive chance to talk live with head coach Jeff Fisher, a nationally-recognized web site, and a network featuring more than 60 of the Mid-South's finest radio stations, no one gets you closer to the game than Titans Radio.

Led by the broadcast team of Mike Keith, Pat Ryan and Larry Stone, Titans Radio begins its third season covering the Tennessee Titans. Keith and Stone bring more than 30 years combined experience in broadcasting to Titans Radio. Keith gained acclaim around the Southeastern Conference during his ten-plus years reporting on the Tennessee Volunteers for WIVK/WNOX Radio in Knoxville. Keith's daily "Sportstalk" Show won numerous awards for its coverage of UT Athletics, including broadcasting's most-coveted prize, the Edward R. Murrow Award. Sports fans across the mid south came to know Keith for his work on the Vol Network where he worked alongside legendary broadcaster John Ward. Keith joined Tennessee's NFL team in 1998 as the team's director of broadcasting and would become the first "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. This spring, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named Keith Tennessee Sportscaster of the Year.

Stone begins his fifth season as executive producer and gameday host for Titans Radio. A broadcaster since the age of 16, Stone won 23 Associated Press news and sports awards during his four years covering the University of North Carolina for WCHL Radio in Chapel Hill. In 1998, following the Oilers' inaugural season in Tennessee, Stone and the broadcast team won "Nashville's Best In Radio" Sports Coverage Award for the network's pregame show.

Calling on his 12 seasons as a NFL quarterback, Pat Ryan provides fans a unique insight to the game in his role as color analyst. The University of Tennessee product was called on in a number of difficult situations as a backup to Jets quarterbacks Richard Todd and Ken O'Brien. In December 1986, Jets coach Joe Walton, seeking an emotional lift, gave Ryan the start in a wild-card game against the Chiefs. Ryan responded, throwing for three touchdowns in a 35-15 win.

Keith and Ryan gained a spot in NFL history during the 1999 season when the Titans beat the Buffalo Bills 22-16 in a wild-card playoff game. Down one point with just 16 seconds remaining, Keith accurately called the play as Lorenzo Neal fielded the kickoff and handed it to Frank Wycheck. Wycheck then passed the ball to Kevin Dyson. As Dyson caught the ball, Ryan immediately saw the opening down the sideline and yelled "he's got something." That line along with Keith's description as Dyson scored the touchdown became part of the Music City Miracle: "there are no flags on the field...it's a miracle. Tennessee has pulled a miracle...a miracle for the Titans."

Keith, Stone and Ryan will be joined again in 2001 with an unparalleled group of analysts. Cody Allison begins his third season as Titans Radio's sideline reporter. Allison has received acclaim from across the league for his thoroughness and responsibility in reporting from the sidelines. Former Tennessee and Vanderbilt coach Doug Mathews provides analysis from the coach's perspective, detailing the important matchups and keys to the game. The Tennessean's two NFL beat writers, Jeff Legwold and Paul Kuharsky, also provide gameday analysis and insight. The veteran sportswriters have a history of covering pro football and continually beat the competition to the story.

Titans Radio Gameday coverage begins on the New 104 The Core two hours before kickoff with Keith, Mathews and Legwold. The three take calls on the day's game and, before home games, visit with fans live in the Titans Endzone outside the south gates of Adelphia Coliseum. Coverage begins across the entire Titans Radio Network one hour before kickoff. After home games, the entire Titans Radio crew again broadcasts from the Titans End Zone talking live with Titans players and coaches.

In addition to gameday coverage, Titans Radio also offers the Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show each Tuesday night from 6-7 central. This show, hosted by Mike Keith, is the exclusive opportunity for fans to talk live with the Titans head coach. Keith and Stone also anchor morning and afternoon "Titans Reports" each weekday, featuring the latest Titans news. In addition, TitansRadio.Com provides the most detailed coverage of the Titans all day, everyday.

The Tennessee Titans Radio Network is a joint venture of Citadel Communications and Capitol Radio Networks.

Preseason Television

For the fifth consecutive season, Titans preseason games can be seen across three states in the region, including in Nashville on ABC Affiliate WKRN-TV (Channel 2). Channel 2 will televise the Titans' August 11 tilt with the Chicago Bears and the August 30 matchup with the Lions in Detroit.

Channel 2 Sports Director John Dwyer will handle the play-by-play with Nashville sports talk show host George Plaster providing commentary.

WPSD	TV 6	Paducah, KY

The Titans other two preseason games will be nationally televised. On August 17, the Fox Network will broadcast the Tennessee-St Louis game. On August 23, CBS will show the Titans-Eagles preseason game to a national audience.

Hosted by WKRN Sports Director John Dwyer, the Jeff Fisher show airs during the season Monday nights on Channel 2 in Nashville.

The Jeff Fisher Show on Channel 2: Mondays at 6:30pm (CST)

Dwyer also will host the "Jeff Fisher Show," which can be seen live from Opry Mills in Nashville every Monday night on Channel 2 throughout the season. The 30-minute show features highlights from the game, complete game evaluation from Coach Fisher, special features, and a different Titans player each week. Local high school prep stand-outs will be honored each week, in addition to a Titans player or staff member for their charitable contributions to the greater Nashville community.

Weekly Titans Radio Show With Coach Fisher: Tuesdays at 6 p.m. (CST)

Mike Keith hosts a weekly radio show with Titans head coach Jeff Fisher throughout the season.

Titans Radio play-by-play voice Mike Keith will once again host "The Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show," live from O'Charley's in Brentwood. Jeff Fisher is live on-site to take questions from the audience, from callers and via e-mail (www.titansradio.com). Each show features a different player guest, as well.

"The Verizon Wireless Jeff Fisher Show" airs on over 50 Titans Radio stations throughout the Mid-South. The program runs from July 24, 2001 through February, 2002.

2001 Tennessee Titans Caravan Tour

Tennessee Titans Wide Receiver Chris Sanders joins Titans staffers and T-Rac on a 2001 caravan visit to St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis. The visit was one of 53 caravan stops made during an 11-day "Thank You Tour" to Titans fans in Tennessee, Alabama and Kentucky.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Tennessee Titans toured cities in Tennessee, Alabama and Kentucky as part of "Titans Caravan 2001". They traveled from April 23 through May 7 in a specially-decorated 30-foot Coachmen motor home provided by Nashville Easy Livin' Country RV. The eight-person crew journeyed into 53 cities, as the team offered free stops at a variety of venues.

Titans Vice President for Community Relations Bob Hyde, "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, Titans Radio gameday host Larry Stone, Pro Bowl mascot "T-Rac" and mascot coordinator Pete Nelson were joined by community relations staffers Brent Alexander, Tresa Halbrooks and Jarrod Randle. Titans media relations staffers Robbie Bohren, Dwight Spradlin and Kyle Sonneman rotated their duties on the caravan. Each stop featured an appearance by a Tennessee Titans player, including Chris Sanders, Jason Fisk, John Thornton, Joe Nedney, Brad Hopkins, Kevin Carter Fred Miller, Joe Salave'a, Randall Godfrey, Kevin Long, and Donald Mitchell.

Defensive tackle John Thornton spoke at the 2001 D.A.R.E. graduation at Lewis County Middle School in Hohenwald, Tenn., during one of the 53 caravan stops last spring.

Visited locations for the Caravan were diverse and covered a large area of the Titans fan market. The caravan partnered with Titans Radio affiliates in a number of towns and made 17 stops at Kroger stores in Tennessee, Kentucky and Alabama. Kroger sponsored the caravan for the second year in a row. Ten school visits were also on the schedule.

Titans, Kroger Build Habitat for Humanity Home

(From left to right) Kroger Foods President Tom Rech, Tennessee Titans defensive linemen Jason Fisk and Kevin Carter take a break during the building of a Habitat for Humanity home in North Nashville. Joining them is Eric Jones, who along with his mother and two siblings, moved into their new home after a June 23 dedication ceremony.

Titans Honor Community QB Award Winner

Special Olympics Athletes Enjoy Titans Experience

Two hundred Special Olympians and their families flooded the field of Adelphia Coliseum on May 2, 2001 as part of the second annual Kids Day.

For the second year, a select group of area children are afforded the opportunity to attend this special day. The activities include on-field inflatable games of football skill and the chance to meet Titans cheerleaders and T-Rac.

New members of the 2001 Titans Cheerleading squad were on hand to support the Special Olympians during their visit to Adelphia Coliseum.

Titans Charity Golf Classic Another Success

Special teams coach Alan Lowry's team of Dr. David Kemp shot a 51 to capture the 3rd Annual Tennessee Titans Charity Golf Classic at Legends Club of Tennessee in May 2001.

The victory capped a two-day charity event that benefited the Tennessee Titans Foundation, raising more than $90,000 to help charities throughout Tennessee.

Jeff Fisher proved he also knew his way around the golf course during the tournament. Fisher's team, appropriately named "Fore the Titans" were big supporters of the event, which helped raise approximately $90,000 for the Titans Foundation.

"Everyone who participated had a great time," Titans president Jeff Diamond said. "At the same time, we were able to help raise funds for 15 area charities."

Titans punter Craig Hentrich, who won the 2000 Cadillac/NFL Golf Classic, was joined on the links by teammates Frank Wycheck, Jason Fisk, Brad Hopkins, Kevin Long, Jason Mathews, Fred Miller, Benji Olson, Zach Piller, Peter Sirmon, Billy Volek, Mike Leach and rookie QB Chris Sanders.

Also playing were Jeff Fisher and several of his assistants, including 2001 Hall of Fame inductee Mike Munchak. Representing the front office were joined by Titans President Jeff Diamond, Don MacLachlan, Mike Keith and Al Smith.

Hopkins Kicks Off Child Seatbelt Campaign

Brad Hopkins joined forces with local safety officials to launch "Titan-Up Tennessee," a public service campaign promoting the regular and proper use of child safety restraint seats.

"As one who makes a living in the trenches battling defensive tackles in the NFL, I wouldn't think about trying to do that without the proper use of safety equipment," Hopkins said. "My wife and I sure don't want to go out on the highway without making sure our children are safe and properly secured."

As part of the Titans Caravan 2001, "Titan-Up Tennessee" organized child safety seat checkpoints in 15 different communities across the state. "Titan-Up Tennessee" is a partnership between the Governor's Highway Safety Office in the Tennessee Department of Transportation, the Tennessee Regional Safety Council, and other highway safety and enforcement officials with support from the Tennessee Titans.

Pro Bowl offensive tackle Brad Hopkins is joined by team mascot T-Rac and children from a Nashville YMCA in unveiling the "Titan-Up Tennessee" campaign

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.
Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.
Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.
Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.
Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.
Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.
Anti-Inflammatory - Any agent which prevents inflammation (such as aspirin or ibuprofen).
Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).
Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).
Arthroscope - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."
Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.
Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).
Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.
Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).
Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.
Axilla - The armpit.
Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.
Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).
Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for blending the elbow.
Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.
Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.
Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.
Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.
C.P.R. - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of the blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.
Calcaneus - The heel bone.
Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.
Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.
Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.
Clavicle - The collar bone.
Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.
Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Congenital - Existing before birth; to be born with.
Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortisone - An anti-inflammatory medication.
Costochondral - The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.
Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Dehydration - Loss of body water.
Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.
Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).
Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).
Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.
Electrolyte - Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.
Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.
EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.
Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.
Eversion - Turning outward.
Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.
Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.
External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.
Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.
Femur - Thigh bone.
Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.
Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.
Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.
Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.
Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.
Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, encomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.
Glenohumeral - The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.
Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).
Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.
Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.
Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.
Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.
Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs causes by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.
Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.
Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.
Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.
Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide facial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.
Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.
Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.
Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.
Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.
Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).
Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).
Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.
Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.
Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.
Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.
Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.
Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.
Metacarpals - Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.
Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.
Mobilization - Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.
Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.
Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.
Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.
Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.
Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.
Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.
Patella - The kneecap.
Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.
Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.
Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.
Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.
Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.
Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.
Quadriceps (Quads)- The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.
Radiography - Taking of X-rays.
Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.
Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.
Referred Pain - Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.
Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area: supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.
S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.
Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.
Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).
Scapula - The shoulder blade.
Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.
Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.
Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.
Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.
Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.
Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.
Spondylitis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.
Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrael fixation or immobility.
Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.
Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.
Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle of a tendon.
Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.
Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.
Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.
Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.
Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.
Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.
Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.
Tarsus - Arch of foot.
Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.
Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.
Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.
Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.
Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.
Trachea - The windpipe.
Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.
Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.
Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.
Turf Burn - Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.
Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.
Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.
Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

TITANS MEDIA POLICY

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Media Relations, Tennessee Titans, 460 Great Circle Rd., Nashville, TN 37228, or by fax to (615) 565-4105. REQUESTS MUST BE RECEIVED AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO A HOME GAME.

PARKING: Parking for Titans games also must be applied for via written request. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game day. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked adjacent to Gate 6. A parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL-CALL: The media entrance is located at Gate 6. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window at Gate 6. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear a special vest. Photographers on a game-by-game basis will have a different credential. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Titans' and visitors' interview rooms after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE LOCKER ROOM. With five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, take the media elevator or stairs to the field level. With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media members will be allowed on the field. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON THE PLAYING FIELD. Jeff Fisher's postgame interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Titans interview room across from the Titans' locker room. Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult-box behind the camera platform to ease congestion at the podium. Players will be available approximately 10 minutes after the game when the locker room is open. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitors' interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

PRESS BOX: The press box phone numbers are (615) 565-4450 (home p.r.) and (615) 565-4452 (visiting p.r.).

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is located at the Titans' practice facility at MetroCenter. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Titans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. The phone number in the media workroom is (615) 565-4116.

JEFF FISHER INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Jeff Fisher will conduct a weekly news conference at 2:00 p.m. on Mondays in the Practice Facility Auditorium. He will also be available following practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Titans' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Tuesday is the players' day off. The locker room is open to the media on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Titans' Media Relations office. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone. Please call in advance when possible to schedule.

PRESS RELEASES: The Titans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official web site at www.titansonline.com. Members of the media can also access league information from the NFL's media site at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official web site address is www.nfl.com.

Listen To Your Heart

Alan Lowry—Special Teams Coach

Tennessee Titans special teams coach Alan Lowry, the mastermind of the "Music City Miracle" kickoff return, listened. Alan woke up one morning experiencing chest pains, and his wife, Donna, rushed him to the Baptist Chest Pain Center. While he had no history of heart disease, doctors discovered a serious blockage in one of his arteries and were able to relieve the congestion.

Because he responded quickly to the symptoms he experienced, Alan gave the physicians at Baptist the time they needed to prevent a heart attack and likely saved his life in the process.

Take the time to listen to your heart and what it may be trying to tell you. Early treatment of heart disease may be the "miracle" that saves your life.
